

FEAR OF EAST DRIVES HOOVER INTO GOTHAM

Nominee, Realizing Weakness on Stump, Faces Necessity of Personal Campaign in New York.

WILL ENDEAVOR TO HARASS SMITH

Advisors Tell Him Victory Must Be Sought in Metropolis; Curtis Already on Platform.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.
United News Staff Correspondent.

Washington, August 27.—(United News.)—Herbert Hoover may be led to believe that just the same he decided today to pay no attention to the "no trespassing" signs which Governor Smith has nailed up all over New York state.

He is going into those sacred precincts gunning for the 45 electoral votes from which the democrats already have claimed home-coming rights.

He will speak in New York city in October, his spokesman said today and he may speak at other centers in the state, including Buffalo where republicans are extremely anxious to have him.

Hoover is the first to agree with those who say he is probably the worst orator who ever ran for president but just the same he is game to go into New York where they have been raised on the piquant brand of Governor Smith.

He may also go into New Jersey where Smith is as popular as he is in New York.

The importance of a supreme effort in the eastern states, particularly New York and New Jersey, was impressed upon Hoover today by his luncheon guests, Charles D. Hilles, New York national committeeman, and Daniel E. Pomeroy, New Jersey committeeman and vice chairman of the national committee.

His was violently anti-Hoover before the convention but is going along now, although refusing to let the original Hoover group in New York get their hands in the state machinery.

Hilles is credited with having just forced the selection of E. H. Macphail, as state republican chairman over W. H. Hill, who conducted the pre-convention drive for Hoover. Hill will confer with Hoover tomorrow.

"New York is a battleground," Hilles said today. "There is no doubt about that."

The vice presidential candidate, Senator Curtis, is already out in the field. He addressed the New York state fair at Syracuse Tuesday. He conferred with republican leaders in New York city today.

Likewise democrats are turning their faces west. Senator Robinson, vice presidential candidate, delivers

Continued on Page 6, Column 7.

HEIFETZ MARRIES FLORENCE VIDOR, STAR OF PICTURES

New York, August 27.—(AP)—Jacobs Heifetz, concert violinist, married Florence Vidor, motion picture actress, on August 26, at the Mayfair hotel, he announced tonight to his manager, George Engles, as he boarded a train for California with his bride. The marriage was performed by former Supreme Court Justice Charles H. Kelby.

Miss Vidor is on her way to fulfill motion picture contracts on the west coast. In the fall Heifetz will sail for Europe to make a concert tour. It is not known whether Miss Vidor will accompany him.

Search for Plotters In Oregon Death Turns to New York

DOHENY IS SUE
FOR TEN MILLION
BY STOCKHOLDERS

Bill Declares Lessee of Elk Hills Must Repay Amount Lost to U. S. in Reserve Deal.

Los Angeles, August 27.—(United News.)—Suit for $10,417,448.12 was filed today against Edward L. Doheny, oil magnate, and the Pan-American Petroleum and Transport company, as an outgrowth of the famous Elk Hills naval oil reserve lease.

The suit was filed by attorneys representing Frank H. Kunkel, a stockholder in the company, "and all other stockholders."

The suit was brought to recover money lost by the company in the transaction, according to the attorneys.

Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick allowed the company actual money expended on the leases, but the action was reversed in both the federal circuit and supreme courts on appeals.

Alleged fraud and conspiracy on the part of Doheny and Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, figured prominently in the case.

The government's suit resulted in a "million dollar settlement," which provided that virtually all profits made in operation of the reserve be returned to the United States.

The bill of complaint asserted the company's board of directors named a special committee to investigate the action, but that no report was made.

Doheny was named in the complaint as owner of more than one-half the common stock of the company "until some time in the year 1925," as president until December 7, 1923, when he became chairman of the board of directors.

A lengthy story of the manner in which the lease was obtained was outlined in the complaint and the outcome of the government's suit was cited as a cause of action.

The complaint alleged that "Pan-American has expended from the corporate funds belonging to its stockholders the sum of about $7,500,000 being the actual cost of constructing storage facilities for the United States at Pearl Harbor, and the sum of about $2,000,000 as the cost of fuel delivered by Pan-American to the United States and stored in its tanks and storage facilities."

GEORGIA WOMAN HELD IN DEATH OF YOUNG CHILD

Gainesville, Ga., August 27.—Mrs. Morgan Brock, 35, is in the county jail here Monday while authorities are investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of the youngest of her three children, Thomas Brock, eight months of age, who died in convulsions Sunday morning.

Physicians who examined the infant expressed the opinion that he had died from poisoning and on the strength of testimony before a coroner's jury Mrs. Brock was ordered held for further investigation.

The mother, according to the testimony, said she administered a dose of teething powder to the child Sunday morning. J. T. Tyler, a grocer, testified that he had sold Mrs. Brock a can of tea, but that she later returned it in exchange for potatoes.

The can had been opened, he said. Mrs. Brock, estranged from her husband, has brooded for some time over domestic troubles, it is said. She lives with her mother on Chandler road near here, but on several occasions, according to testimony, she has made efforts to place the three children in an orphanage or in private homes.

RASKOB CLAIMS HUGE MAJORITY FOR AL SMITH

Chairman Says Governor Is Assured 309 Electoral Votes and Greatest Popular Poll on Record.

HAS NO DOUBT OF SOLID SOUTH

Party Sure of Success in East and Will Carry Many Farm States in Western Zone.

St. Louis, August 27.—(AP)—John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee, predicted upon his arrival here today with a group of eastern democratic leaders, that Governor Smith would receive 309 of the 531 electoral votes for president.

Naming the states which he thought Smith would carry, Raskob's statement, prepared en route to the notification exercises for Senator Joe T. Robinson at Hot Springs, Ark., claimed also for Smith an even chance to carry other states having a total of 37 electors.

Raskob, who will confer here with western state leaders before proceeding to Hot Springs Wednesday night, claimed for Governor Smith "the solid south," including Kentucky, Tennessee and Oklahoma, and New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Arizona, Colorado, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Missouri, New Mexico and Nevada.

There seemed little doubt, Raskob said, that Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wyoming should be classified for Smith.

These states, however, were set apart in the statement from a list of states which he said "any prudent business man would at this time classify for Smith."

Accompanying Raskob was Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, in charge of women's activities for Smith; Mrs. John A. Warner, daughter of the democratic presidential nominee; Jonett Shouse, of Kansas, former assistant secretary of the treasury and now a member of the advisory committee; United States Senator Peter G. Gerry, of Rhode Island, in charge of the advisory committee, and Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former governor of Wyoming.

Democratic state chairmen, national committee members and committee women, officers of senatorial and congressional committees, candidates and other party leaders from eight states in the central western district will meet with Raskob in separate state conferences Tuesday and Wednesday. The states are Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois and Iowa.

Of the eight, Raskob laid claim to Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee and Oklahoma, and placed the others in the category of battleground for the electoral votes.

Raskob said business is not afraid of Smith and that it has no need to fear. He said the republican "full dinner pail argument" would not avail in the present campaign. In New York, Raskob said, the republican movement has the utmost confidence in Smith and are fully aware that no legitimate industry would suffer by his election.

Smith Opens His Campaign Amid Ovation

First Political Speech in Newark Is Triumph as Thousands Cheer.

BY PAUL F. HAUPERT.
Associated Press Staff Writer.

New York, August 28 (Tuesday).—(AP)—Surrounded by a cheering throng that had waited until nearly midnight to greet him, Governor Smith delivered his first campaign speech last night on the steps of city hall at Newark, New Jersey.

Forgetting all about his resolution not to tax his voice with open air addresses, the democratic presidential nominee spoke for several minutes. Then he resumed his automobile trip back to New York from the New Jersey coast, arriving here well after midnight.

The governor, who had received almost a continuous ovation as he made his way up the seashore from Spring Lake, where he spent the week-end, was given his greatest send-off in Newark. Thousands of men, women and children, shouting themselves hoarse, were massed on the steps around him and in the street below.

15 NATIONS SIGN TREATY WRITTEN BY BRIAND-KEILLOG RENOUNCING AGGRESSION

G. O. P. BADLY SPLIT
IN AGRARIAN WEST,
ATLANTA HEARS

Rising Smith Tide in Farm Areas Brings Panic in Ranks of Republicans, Says Reynolds

BY PAUL STEVENSON.

Democratic national campaign headquarters in New York are fairly seething with enthusiasm, and democratic leaders in charge are filled with confidence in a sweeping democratic victory for Smith and Robinson in November, according to R. J. Reynolds, Jr., secretary of the Young Men's Democratic League of Georgia, who returned to Atlanta Monday after a visit to the national offices.

"Our leaders are imbued with real confidence and they discuss the situation frankly and openly," he said. "Weak spots in various parts of the country are mentioned as well as the spots where some surprising victories for the national ticket will be rolled up, in their opinion."

While in New York Mr. Reynolds conferred with John J. Raskob, manager of the national campaign; United States Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, in charge of the southern division; United States Senator Millard E. Tydings, of Maryland; John Lord, national publicity director, and many chairmen of state democratic committees.

Republican leaders in several states of the middle west are hopelessly divided while the rank and file are torn by internecine strife," Mr. Reynolds continued.

Republicans will have all they can do to rally their disorganized forces in key states in both the east and the middle west and they won't have so much time or energy to devote to the south. In the middle west the farm relief situation is causing the leaders of the republicans much worry.

"Leaders in national headquarters are confident of rolling up an enormous popular vote for Governor Smith, even in the rock-ribbed republican states like Pennsylvania. In fact it

Continued on Page 6, Column 6.

EULA THOMPSON TELLS NEW STORY

Latest "Confession" Says Negro, Executed With Husband, Alone Killed Storekeeper.

Making still another "confession," in which she alleges that Jim Hugh Moss, a "negro who talked like a white man," was the slayer of Coleman Osborne, Eula Mae Thompson, in Fulton tower under death sentence in connection with the murder, declared that she and her husband, Clifford Thompson, who already has been executed on the same charge, were innocent. Moss also was put to death.

This latest "confession" by the Thompson woman is totally at variance with one made a few hours prior to the execution of her husband and the negro Moss. It makes no mention of a prominent citizen of Murray county who, in the first "confession," was said by the woman to have plotted the killing of Osborne to cover up an illicit relationship which, she said, existed between her and this man.

She mentioned only herself, her husband and the negro in the new "confession," and declared that she and Thompson were waiting several yards away while Moss went to Osborne's house for some gasoline.

Sounds of Argument. She said she and her husband heard sounds of argument between the two, and then heard two shots, followed by "about five more shots." Moss then came running back to them and told them Osborne had refused to give him change, and had shot at him twice, whereupon he (Moss) shot at Osborne, the confession said.

In a previous "confession," made on the eve of her husband's execution, the Thompson woman implicated herself and another man and vehemently declared that her husband and the negro were innocent. She failed to save herself and another man and vehemently declared that her husband and the negro were innocent. She failed to save herself and another man and vehemently declared that her husband and the negro were innocent.

Continued on Page 6, Column 6.

Southland Is Flooded
With Misrepresentation

against Mr. Smith, either because of his prohibition views or because of his religion.

"I do not know who is paying for it, but I know that people are getting them who do not pay for them. Hundreds of thousands of copies of the Fellowship Forum, published in Washington, and the stuff that is being sent into the south every week for the purpose of getting Governor Smith in wrong with southern democrats."

"They are not fighting in the open, as far as the south is concerned. They are working through some organizations whose purposes heretofore have been very high and uplifting, but which are being used in this instance to prejudice the minds of people

GEORGIA SCHOOL OF LAW EXPANDED

Full Time Faculty Is Approved by Trustees; Case System of Instruction Adopted.

Trustees of the University of Georgia Monday made provision for a full time faculty at the University of Georgia law school and also provided for the adoption of the "case system" of legal instruction at a meeting Monday afternoon at the capital.

Twenty-eight trustees and officials, including Judge Richard B. Russell, chairman of the board, and Charles M. Stelling met to extend the first official welcome from the University to H. N. Edmunds, recently elected dean of the law school. Mr. Edmunds, formerly of the University of South Carolina law school, will assume his new post with the opening of the 1928 session next month.

Following the session, the board made it plain in a statement that adoption of the case system of instruction, which it declared to be in force in all leading law schools of the country, goes hand-in-hand with expansion of the law school, said that with increased standards and the new method of teaching, the school, in his opinion, "will undoubtedly take its place among the schools of first rank."

"The great body of alumni are likewise enthused over the prospects, and plan for the erection of a new law building by them as a contribution to their alma mater are fast maturing," the statement said.

It was explained that expansion of the faculty will begin gradually this fall with employment of one additional instructor, who the board promised will be "thoroughly qualified."

Judge Guber, who is to be supplanted as dean by Mr. Edmunds, will remain on the faculty, as will Dr. Morris, in addition to Professors George F. Guber and Sylvanus Morris, the statement added.

Chancellor Snelling, expressing enthusiasm for the future development of the school, said that the board of trustees will be carefully selected by the chancellor and the dean, and will consist of three full professors and two associate professors, in addition to Professors George F. Guber and Sylvanus Morris, the statement added.

Chancellor Snelling, expressing enthusiasm for the future development of the school, said that the board of trustees will be carefully selected by the chancellor and the dean, and will consist of three full professors and two associate professors, in addition to Professors George F. Guber and Sylvanus Morris, the statement added.

Chancellor Snelling, expressing enthusiasm for the future development of the school, said that the board of trustees will be carefully selected by the chancellor and the dean, and will consist of three full professors and two associate professors, in addition to Professors George F. Guber and Sylvanus Morris, the statement added.

Chancellor Snelling, expressing enthusiasm for the future development of the school, said that the board of trustees will be carefully selected by the chancellor and the dean, and will consist of three full professors and two associate professors, in addition to Professors George F. Guber and Sylvanus Morris, the statement added.

GERMANY-FRANCE
FIND FULL ACCORD
IN NEW PLEDGES

Impressive Ceremonies Accompany Short Meeting of Ministers To Commemorate Peace Gesture.

U. S. IS PRAISED FOR OVERTURES

Pact Declares National Policy Is Opposed To Warfare; Briand Praises Woodrow Wilson.

Paris, August 27.—(AP)—The Briand pact, by which 15 nations renounce war as an instrument of national policy, was signed here today.

Less than ten minutes was required for the affixing of signatures to the instrument which, its sponsors agree, has an immense perspective of world peace.

Ancient ritual and intense methods of modern publicity were mingled in the ceremony. Ushers clad in blue and gold-trimmed coats, red velvet breeches and white silk stockings, directed the plenipotentiaries to their places and conducted guests to their seats. A superbly uniformed Swiss guard with halberd, an inheritance of the court procedure of centuries ago, led the solemn procession of statesmen from the reception room of Aristide Briand, foreign minister of France, to the clock room, where the signing took place.

While this colorful proceeding was taking place, 40 cameras were clicking, color pictures were working and microphones were gathering the faintest sounds of the spectacular program and broadcasting them throughout Europe and to other continents.

The plenipotentiaries took their seats at the horseshoe-shaped table just as the beautiful clock, which gives its name to the apartment, struck the hour of three. Before this moment came distinguished persons from many nations were gathered in the room. The scene was very like an afternoon reception with salutations, introductions and gossip.

Premier Poincare had an informal leave. When he entered all who were seated arose. He particularly took note of Ambassador Von Hoesch, of Germany. He also spoke with each of the few ladies present, talking several minutes with Mrs. Kellogg, wife of the United States secretary of state. Among the other ladies who received attention from him were Mrs. Parmley Herick, daughter-in-law of the American ambassador, Mrs. T. Bentley Mott, wife of the American army colonel who is assistant military attaché of the embassy here; Mrs. Haris, wife of General William W. Haris, military attaché, and Countess Mazzoni, wife of the Italian ambassador.

The program proceeded promptly at its fixed hour and was ended in 68

Continued on Page 6, Column 4.

The Weather LOCAL SHOWERS.

Washington—Forecast: Georgia—Local showers and thunderstorms Tuesday and probably Wednesday.

Local Weather Report.
Highest temperature 85
Lowest temperature 71
Mean temperature 78
Normal temperature 78
Rainfall in past 24 hours, inches .00
Deficiency since first of month, inches 11
Excess since January 1, inches 5.30
Total rainfall since January 1, 40.33

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.
STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER Temperature Rain 7 p.m. 12 m. High Low

ATLANTA, clear 79 85 .00
Augusta, cloudy 76 90 .06
Birmingham, clear 80 90 .01
Boston, cloudy 68 74 .06
Buffalo, clear 82 88 .00
Charlotte, pt. cldy 80 84 .14
Chicago, clear 82 88 .00
Denver, clear 80 82 .00
Des Moines, clear 82 88 .00
Galveston, pt. cldy 86 90 .00
Hartford, pt. cldy 80 86 .00
Harve, pt. cldy 72 84 .04
Jacksonville, pt. cldy 76 80 .01
Kansas City, clear 88 90 .00
Memphis, clear 80 82 .18
New Orleans, cloudy 82 88 .00
Mobile, raining 74 92 .28
Montgomery, cloudy 88 90 .00
New York, cloudy 74 80 T
North Platte, clear 82 88 .00
Oklahoma City, clear 90 96 .00
Pittsburgh, clear 78 86 T
Raleigh, clear 82 88 .00
San Francisco, clear 58 62 .00
St. Louis, clear 84 92 .00
Salt Lake City, clear 82 84 T
Savannah, pt. cldy 78 82 .24
Tampa, clear 78 88 T
Toledo, clear 80 88 .00
Tulsa, pt. cldy 78 84 T
Washington, clear 80 88 .00

C. F. von HERMANN,
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

MR. JIM Says:
"Now that fall styles are being advertised, I notice it's hard for me to get hold of The Constitution. The wife and the girls are reading about dresses so much I can scarcely follow the political developments."

Advertising in The Constitution
Pays the Advertiser and Saves the Buyer.

Largest Circulation, Morning or Evening of Any Daily Newspaper in Atlanta!

NOBLE IS FREED IN FATAL CRASH

The hearing of the case of the state of Georgia vs. Gonzalez Noble before Judge Luther Rosser of the municipal court of Atlanta was concluded on Monday, resulting in the discharge of the defendant.

Gonzalez Noble, who is a citizen of Havana, Cuba, and a student at Riverside Military academy, was charged with murder, resulting from a collision between an automobile driven by him and another car driven by F. H. Walker, in which collision Mrs. F. J. Garbutt, of 527 Greenwood avenue, was instantly killed at the intersection of Peachtree and Seventeenth streets on Thursday afternoon, August 16th.

Cuban Consul Testifies.
Dr. Florencio Guerra, the Cuban consul, manifested considerable interest in the case and appeared as a witness to testify to the good character of the defendant, his testimony being rendered unnecessary by the ruling of Judge Rosser that as no attack had been made upon the character of the defendant his good character would be presumed by the court.

A number of eye witnesses to the occurrence testified that the collision which resulted in the death of Mrs. Garbutt was not brought about by any negligence on the part of the defendant, and Colonel Sandy Beavers, the head of Riverside academy, appeared as a witness to testify to the fact that the defendant was one of many desirable young Cubans seeking an education in Georgia, and that Gonzalez Noble had made an exceptional record in all of his studies and deportment.

Not Due to Negligence.
Judge Rosser in discharging the defendant held that under the evidence it clearly appeared that the unfortunate casualty was not the result of any negligence on the part of young Noble.
The prosecution was represented by W. F. Buchanan, while Gonzalez Noble was represented by Hugh Howell, of the firm of Howell, Heyman and Bokling, and by T. T. Brown, assistant attorney general of Georgia.

AMERICAN BUSINESS CLUB TO MEET TODAY

The regular weekly meeting of the American Business club will be at 1 o'clock Tuesday in the ballroom of the Henry Grady hotel. The program will be arranged by E. B. Brooks.

Showers Due To Cool Warm Tropic Winds

Southerly winds brought about by the eastward movement of a low pressure area which Monday was over South Dakota will bring Atlanta the warm breath of the tropics today, said C. F. von Herrmann, United States meteorologist. Temperatures today are expected to range from 70 to 90 degrees.

The mercury ranged on Monday between a low of 71 and a high of 85 degrees.
There is a possibility that the atmosphere will be slightly cooled off late this afternoon by the thunder-showers, Mr. von Herrmann said. Temperatures this week are expected to be normal or above, producing good cotton growing weather, the forecaster said.

SAVANNAH CONCERN BUYS SIX NEW SHIPS

Washington, August 27.—(AP)—The South Atlantic Steamship Line of Savannah, Ga., was the sole bidder for the American Palmetto Line, the bid on which was shipped by the shipping board today. The company bid $234,750 for six of the ten ships of the line.

The bid for each deadweight ton was $5.

In a letter accompanying the bid E. S. Trossell, president of the line, said that the company was prepared to bid for two additional steamers, bringing the total number to eight and guaranteeing 36 sailings a year in order to obtain mail contracts. However, the bid provided that the ships must be reconditioned and drydocked and fully equipped before the company would take them over. Delivery of the ships would be made upon arrival in American ports and after examination and fulfillment of the requirements and stipulations in the bids. Under specifications for the bids the successful bidder was to guarantee to maintain 24 round trip sailings a year for five years which would entitle the lines to about $200,000 a year on mail contracts. A minimum of six of the ten ships in the line were offered.

Shipping Board Line.

The American Palmetto Line was established by the shipping board about five years ago for South Atlantic-United Kingdom and north continental trade. It was sold to the Carolina company of Charleston, S. C., in 1925. During its brief period of private operation the line suffered severe losses caused by competitors slashing rates. At the request of the Carolina line the shipping board took over the American Palmetto Line in 1926 and since then its losses have been considerably reduced through the $10,000,000 "fighting fund" furnished the shipping board by congress to be used in competing for trade.

The ten ships of the line are of the Hog Island steel cargo type of 7,825 deadweight tons. Ports of call are Jacksonville, Charleston, Savannah, Liverpool, Manchester, Antwerp, Rotterdam, Bremen, Hamburg and Southampton.

It was indicated in the South Atlantic company's bid that should it be awarded the line ultimately a combination passenger, cargo and refrigeration service in the South Atlantic-United Kingdom and continental trade would be established. It was also stated that should the operation of the line be successful that the tonnage would be gradually increased.

METCALF RETURNS FROM BUYING TRIP

John A. Metcalf, owner of four stores which bear his name, has just returned from a buying trip to New York and Monday reported that his operations there were highly successful.

Prior to leaving Atlanta about 10 days ago, Mr. Metcalf displayed in the show windows of the Manufacturers Outlet store on Forsyth street approximately $10,000 in cash which he spent in buying in New York. The novelty of this stunt gained widespread recognition, Mr. Metcalf said. New York's most prominent trade journals devoting articles to its description.

CAR OF CALIFORNIA GRAPEFRUIT HERE

The first carload of California grapefruit ever sold on the Atlanta market was received here Monday from Redlands, Calif., by H. H. Nall company, fruit distributors. Mr. Nall said Monday. The car was purchased by McCord Brothers, one of the largest wholesale firms on this city's market.

Although nearly 200 cars of Florida grapefruit are sold here annually, this is the first time that an entire car has been shipped from California, he said. The usual custom is to include several boxes of the fruit in cars of oranges and lemons from the west coast.

LIONS TO HEAR TALK ON "BOOTLEG LIQUOR"

An address on "Bootleg Licker" by Jeff Richardson, member of this local club, will feature the weekly meeting of the Lions club Tuesday afternoon in the Wineoff hotel. A musical skit from one of the local theaters has also been arranged for the program by Sam Levy, chairman.

WOMAN'S CIVIC COUNCIL TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The August meeting of the Atlanta Woman's Civic council will be held Wednesday morning in the city hall council chamber. The session will be from 10 o'clock until noon, and will be in charge of Mrs. J. E. Andrews, chairman.

ATLANTA TRAINED DIVISION TO HOLD REUNION IN FALL

The "ten years after" union of the 82d All-American division of the world war will be held in New York city September 21-23, according to plans now being made by John A. Quinn, president of the 82d Division association. The eighty-second was a division made up of service men from all parts of the country, and was trained in Atlanta.

The date of the convention will mark the decennial anniversary of the division's drive in the Meuse Argonne, the last major offensive of the war. The organization never has held any sort of reunion before, and it is expected that this will prove popular.

Thousands of former comrades are now living in Georgia and throughout the south, and are asked to communicate with the New York office in order to make reservations for the convention, which will have its headquarters in the McAlpin hotel.

Among the notable members of the division are Sergeant Alvin C. York, Tennessee mountaineer who became one of the most outstanding figures of the world war, and Major General George B. Duncan.

WELFARE GROUP HEAD TO VISIT CITY TODAY

Colonel J. H. Beery, regimental commander of the Volunteers of America, with headquarters in Jacksonville, will arrive in Atlanta Tuesday morning on a tour of his territory. While here he will visit emergency headquarters of the Volunteers at 545 Washington street, which are in charge of Captain P. C. Beil.

CARSWELL FLAYS RECORD OF FLYNT

Judge J. J. Flynt, candidate for secretary of state, while serving as a member of the legislature a year ago opposed measures providing for the distribution of automobile license tags through county offices instead of through the office of the secretary of state, according to a statement issued Monday by George H. Carswell, who is running for reelection.

The statement of Mr. Carswell follows:

My friend and opponent, Judge James J. Flynt, we find, has a wonderfully changeable mind on two things he now stands for. In his race for the office I am now holding Judge Flynt is basing his request for support on just two points, and these only. From his own letters these two points are taken. The first is: "I favor the distribution of automobile tags through local officers who, I feel, can do the work just as efficiently as it can be done from the capital, and at the same time increase the emoluments of the local officers handling them."

That's a strange claim for Judge Flynt to be making now, when just a year ago, in the general assembly, Judge Flynt was strongly opposed to that very thing and prevented the legislature passing a bill that would have made it possible for Judge Flynt to retire from the legislature, though that body would have to change the law to do what he now wants done. The secretary of state has no power to change the law. The journal of the house of representatives of 1927, of which the judge was a prominent member, shows that Representative Rutland, of Lee, introduced Bill No. 102, to provide that automobile tags be sold by the clerk of court in the counties of the state. The bill was referred to Judge Flynt's committee, the committee on public highways, June 23. On June 29 Representative Pope, of Walker, introduced Bill No. 149, to provide that automobile tags be sold by the clerk of the counties. It was referred to Judge Flynt's committee. The record shows that Judge Flynt's committee choked both these bills to death and wouldn't even let them get to a vote on the floor of the house. Either of them would have put the sale of tags through a county office.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June points, how do we know he will not change back between now and next July? The whole thing is the judge's campaign is simply that the judge wants my job; that's all.

The second and only other point on which Judge Flynt asks that he be elected also is taken from his letter. He says: "I further favor depositing the funds received from the sale of these tags in local banks . . . and leaving it there until it is withdrawn by the comptroller general."

Last June and July Judge Flynt fought against that very thing, as his record shows. Representatives Murph and Nall introduced Bill No. 2 in the house June 24. "To require all revenue of the state to be paid into the state treasury." The bill was referred to the committee, of which Judge Flynt is vice chairman, where it was freely debated, and on July 7 Judge Flynt's committee reported the bill for passage with several amendments. Judge Flynt's committee had made. On July 14 the bill came on for debate and final passage by the house. It was passed and Judge Flynt voted for it. The vote was 142 to 1. It is a law today by Judge Flynt's vote and prevents what the judge now stands for.

If my friend, the judge, has so completely changed his mind from last June

AUDITORS CHECK CARNES' ACCOUNTS

Efforts to trace Clinton S. Carnes, treasurer of the Baptist Home Mission board and wealthy business man, who disappeared on August 15 when he was scheduled for a trip to Raleigh, N. C., on business, have been unavailing in spite of the use of both newspapers and the radio, it was announced Monday afternoon at the mission board's offices.

Auditors who were employed Friday and who began a check up of the books on Saturday will deliver their report in a few days, and a meeting of the executive board of the home missions board will be held to determine what further action it will take in the matter, it was said by Dr. B. D. Gray, executive secretary of the board and acting treasurer.

Dr. L. B. Christie, president of the board, is expected in Atlanta today or Wednesday to aid in the search for Mr. Carnes, while Dr. Austin Crouch, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist convention, arrived here Sunday. Dr. George W. Truitt, president of the convention, is expected here within a few days from Lynchburg, Va., where he has been visiting relatives.

Samuel Carnes, elder son of the missing Atlanta, has taken over direction of the large holdings of his father, it was stated Monday.

Mr. Carnes was due to leave for Raleigh on August 15, and had told friends that he might also go on to Boston. When he failed to return as scheduled, members of the home mission board and his family began investigating. They learned that he had not been to Raleigh so far as any of the people he was to have seen there knew.

Thomas H. Scott, attorney for Mr. Carnes, said Monday night that he will invoke the aid of local police today in the search for the Atlanta. The police will be asked to communicate with officials in other cities and request that a watch be established for Mr. Carnes, Mr. Scott said.

Fortune intact. Mr. Scott said that although several persons have reported seeing Mr. Carnes on Atlanta streets within the past few days, he does not place any credence in these reports. The more probable theory is that Mr. Carnes has either fallen ill somewhere after starting for Raleigh, N. C., or Columbia, S. C., on business, or that he has met with foul play, it was said.

He has checked over Mr. Carnes' personal bank account and has found it in perfect shape, while no clues were obtained from a search of the missing Atlanta's office and desk, Mr. Scott said. Mr. Scott estimates Mr. Carnes' personal fortune at several hundred thousands of dollars, the missing man having large real estate holdings.

Pending the report of Ernst and Ernst, the auditors who are making the special investigation of the board's finances, it was said that the recent annual audit, made several months ago, showed the board's affairs to be in perfect condition.

Easy to use Easy to buy

THE Ciné-Kodak

Home movies are easy with a Ciné-Kodak, the simplest of all home movie cameras.

And anyone can afford a Ciné-Kodak, too. Our special budget buying plan assures that. A small sum down and the camera is yours. Balance in easy monthly payments.

There's no reason at all why you can't enjoy home movies now. Come in today and get the facts. Ask any of our salesmen for a free demonstration.

Complete outfit as low as $140.

Eastman Kodak Stores, Inc.

183 Peachtree St.

Victor Dealers of Southeast View New Fall Models At Showing by Victor Caravan Held Here on Monday

Prominent officials who Monday participated in the first southeastern showing of new fall models of the Victor Talking Machine company. First row, left to right: F. G. Hawkins, Victor promotion director; Dan Des Folles, head of the southern record department; E. M. Freilich, vice president of the Bankers Commercial Security company; E. L. Norcross, technical representative of Victor; and D. S. Pruitt, special representative of the Victor company. Back row, H. P. West, city representative of the Elyea Talking Machine company; G. L. Elyea, general manager of the company which bears his name; G. D. Elyea, assistant manager of the Elyea company; F. W. Schwobel, salesmanager of the Elyea company; J. Robinson, Georgia representative of Victor; and G. L. Richardson, district Victor salesmanager.

Introduction of new fall Victor talking machine models that set a standard of excellence in beauty, tone and volume for products of this nationally famous manufacturing company. Monday were introduced to dealers of this section at an all-day meeting at the Ansley hotel.

The occasion marked the arrival here of the Victor caravan, composed of factory experts, merchandising leaders and record chiefs of the Victor company, who discussed all phases of the new models and of merchandising plans for them with dealers in this territory.

The meeting was under auspices of the Elyea Talking Machine company of Atlanta, distributors for this section, and the visiting dealers' cause.

from all parts of Georgia, North and South Carolina, Florida, Tennessee and Alabama.

The new models were enthusiastically received when presented in a special setting, scenery for which was brought by the caravan. Magnificently made, with many improvements and for the most part in beautiful monochromatic style cabinets, the new models comprise three classes. First is a moderately priced Orthophonic automatic; second, an automatic instrument with electrical amplification, and third, the de luxe model featuring electrical amplification and the new Radiola No. 44. The automatic mechanism for these models has been greatly improved.

A feature of the caravan gathering was a banquet at the Ansley civic room Monday night, at which G. L. Richardson, district Victor salesmanager, was chief speaker, his subject being "If We Were Selling Victrolas."

Dealers attending this event were entertained by six exclusive Victor recording artists—Jimmy Rodgers, widely known "blues yodeler," Earnest Rogers, Atlanta broadcasting favorite, and the four "Georgia Yellowhammers," Calhoun musical organization.

At the morning business session F. W. Schwobel, salesmanager of the Elyea company, welcomed the visiting dealers and factory men, and J. Robinson, Georgia Victor representative, outlined the purpose of the meeting.

At the banquet, Mr. Schwobel, who spoke on "Making Music Mean More," and E. M. Freilich, vice president of the Bankers Commercial Security company of New York, spoke on "Financing Music."

Following a delightful luncheon, the new models were introduced by D. S. Pruitt, special Victor representative, who also delivered an address on "The Infantry and Artillery of Selling." Dan Des Folles, manager of the southern record department, spoke on "Jazz—Smoking Hot," and closing remarks were made by Mr. Elyea, host to the gathering. Mr. Richardson, chief speaker of the banquet, also spoke during the day business sessions on "The New 1935-1936 Victrolas."

HARDWICK SPEAKS AT JEFFERSONVILLE

Jeffersonville, Ga., August 27.—(AP) Urging his audience to maintain their allegiance to the Jeffersonian principles of democracy, Thomas W. Hardwick, former United States senator and former governor of Georgia, delivered an address to a crowd which packed the superior courtroom here today.

The speaker was frequently interrupted by the cheers of the crowd as he outlined the issues involved in the presidential campaign and ably supported the cause of Alfred Smith, nominee of the democratic party. Mr. Hardwick spoke for over an hour.

The speaker was introduced to his audience by Mrs. W. M. Whitehurst, wife of the mayor of Jeffersonville. In her remarks Mrs. Whitehurst paid tribute to Mr. Hardwick for his service to the state both as senator and governor.

Mr. Hardwick flayed those who were now urging the Georgia voters to "forsake the party of their fathers and turn to the one which was born out of hatred for the south." "How can one forget those early reconstruction days following the war between the states, when the scalawags and carpetbaggers overran the south and left misery, poverty and despair in their wake?" he asked. "These same scalawags and scalawags were foisted on the south by the republican leaders of that day. Now they come south and ask us to desert the democratic party and support their nominee," Mr. Hardwick said. At this juncture he was interrupted.

Another "hit and run" driver on Forrest avenue took toll early Monday night when Mrs. T. M. Brooks, 65, of 215 Forrest avenue, N. E., was run down and seriously injured while crossing the street in front of her home. Mrs. Brooks suffered a double fracture of the right leg.

She was taken to Grady hospital. She was unable to furnish police with a license number of the automobile that struck her and cannot state whether the driver was white or a negro. Though her condition is serious, she is expected to recover.

G. L. Rollins, 23, of 405 Lyle avenue, East Point, was treated at Grady hospital early Monday night for severe lacerations about the face and legs, which he claims were received when the motorcycle he was riding crashed into a telephone pole. Rollins did not say where the accident occurred. After being treated he was allowed to go home.

ALABAMA LEADER TO STUMP STATE FOR THE TICKET

Birmingham, Ala., August 27.—(AP) A stumping program that will carry the story of Al Smith into every community in Alabama before the date of the November election, will be inaugurated next week by the state democratic campaign committee.

Congressman W. B. Oliver, chairman of the committee, announced Monday that any requests for speakers had been received from different sections of the state. He said a committee of speakers would be appointed this week. Organization of the democratic forces of the state was started Monday at campaign headquarters here.

A branch campaign office will be established in Montgomery. A vice committee chairman to take charge of the Montgomery branch will be named this week.

Oliver was to leave Birmingham tonight for Montgomery.

AGED WOMAN HURT BY "HIT-RUN" AUTO

Another "hit and run" driver on Forrest avenue took toll early Monday night when Mrs. T. M. Brooks, 65, of 215 Forrest avenue, N. E., was run down and seriously injured while crossing the street in front of her home. Mrs. Brooks suffered a double fracture of the right leg.

She was taken to Grady hospital. She was unable to furnish police with a license number of the automobile that struck her and cannot state whether the driver was white or a negro. Though her condition is serious, she is expected to recover.

G. L. Rollins, 23, of 405 Lyle avenue, East Point, was treated at Grady hospital early Monday night for severe lacerations about the face and legs, which he claims were received when the motorcycle he was riding crashed into a telephone pole. Rollins did not say where the accident occurred. After being treated he was allowed to go home.

ALABAMA LEADER TO STUMP STATE FOR THE TICKET

Birmingham, Ala., August 27.—(AP) A stumping program that will carry the story of Al Smith into every community in Alabama before the date of the November election, will be inaugurated next week by the state democratic campaign committee.

Congressman W. B. Oliver, chairman of the committee, announced Monday that any requests for speakers had been received from different sections of the state. He said a committee of speakers would be appointed this week. Organization of the democratic forces of the state was started Monday at campaign headquarters here.

A branch campaign office will be established in Montgomery. A vice committee chairman to take charge of the Montgomery branch will be named this week.

Oliver was to leave Birmingham tonight for Montgomery.

HARRIS ADDRESSES VOTERS OF GORDON

Calhoun, Ga., August 27.—Senator William J. Harris addressed a large audience of Gordon county voters here today. He spoke for one hour, explaining the efforts of the democratic senators to pass laws for the agricultural interests of the south. He declared that but for the assistance of Senator Horn and Senator Norris and two or three other western senators no laws would ever be passed to the advantage of the south.

Referring to the matter of mixing negroes and white girls in the departments presided over by Secretary Hoover, he stated that he would not refer to the matter but for the fact that his name had been drawn into the discussion. He stated that when he went to Washington under appointment of President Wilson to take charge of the census bureau he immediately separated the whites and blacks, and that they remained separated until last April, when during the stress of the fight for the convention votes of the south he published in the last number of the Christian Index that no order had been passed authorizing the mixing of the races, "no formal order was necessary, and probably none was passed, as certified to by Mr. Haskins in the Index."

ALL BABY RECORDS BROKEN AT GRADY DURING AUGUST

All previous records of the maternity ward of Grady hospital have been broken this month, with four days yet to go, 87 babies have been born, including three sets of twins. The girls won over their male opponents in the "twin race," there being two sets of twin girls born, while one set of twin boys opened their eyes to the world during the month of August.

DAWES CELEBRATES 63RD BIRTHDAY WORKING AT DESK

Chicago, August 27.—(AP) Vice President Charles G. Dawes today observed his 63rd birthday anniversary by appearing for work as usual at his offices in the Central Trust company bank.

He expected a birthday cake for dinner, he said, but was not sure about that. The vice president returned Saturday from a hunting trip in Colorado and New Mexico and expects to leave Saturday for the summer home of his brother, Beman Dawes, at Manitoulin, Ontario.

RUTH BRYAN OWEN TO SUPPORT TICKET

Orlando, Fla., August 27.—(AP) The Orlando Reporter Star today received a telegram from Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen in which the democratic nominee for congress in the fourth Florida district reiterated her statement that she always had been and always would be a democrat and as such would support the party ticket.

Mrs. Owen said the report that she would speak in North Carolina was erroneous as she felt that all of her time between now and the November election should be devoted to the cause of the party in Florida.

The telegram, which came from Indianapolis, contained a copy of Mrs. Owen's reply to Democratic State Chairman M. M. Mull, of North Carolina, as follows:

"Your letter has just been forwarded to me. Although I appreciate your courtesy I cannot consider any invitations to campaign outside my own congressional district."

"My first duty is to carry out the responsibility given me in the June primary. I will not nominate for congress and I owe it to those who nominated me to put my every effort into my own campaign."

BAD WEATHER DELAYS SEARCH FOR AMUNDSEN

Rome, August 27.—(AP) The Norwegian sealing ship Braganza, searching off the coast of Spitzbergen for missing members of the Italia and Amundsen expeditions, was able to make two short surveys near Great island today, according to an official communique from the Italia base ship Citta di Milano.

Extremely bad weather prevails, however, and the commander of the Braganza believes that it would be perilous to move farther to the northward into the ice pack.

LEVINE UNDECIDED ABOUT OCEAN HOP

London, August 27.—(AP) Charles A. Levine, who flew to London from Dessau, Germany, stated today that he was undecided whether to attempt a flight to America.

His decision will depend on "conditions and circumstances," he said, especially on how his new Junkers monoplane performs in the trials he is putting it through at the Croydon aerodrome.

"Yes I'll take Miss Boll if the trial flights show we can carry her," Levine said, in response to a query as to whether Mabel Boll would accompany him in case he made the trip.

MECHANICAL ERROR IN STORY OF GIRL'S ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Through a mechanical error the story in Monday's issue of The Constitution under a Fitzgerald date line of the accidental death of Nellie Jordan, 14-year-old daughter of a farmer residing in the Ashton district, was consolidated with part of another story of a fight in which one man was shot to death at Macon.

These two items related to distinctly separate casualties. The item relating to the fatal shooting of a Macon textile worker was in no way connected with the unfortunate and accidental death of the Jordan child.

RECORD OF RIVERS SCORED BY FORT

Jackson, Ga., August 27.—E. D. Rivers' record in the legislature was criticized here today by T. Hicks Fort, of Columbus, one of Governor Hardman's campaign managers. Mr. Fort spoke at noon recess of the court in the Butts county courthouse, Judge Ogden Persons granting him an hour's time for his address. The courtroom was filled to overflowing.

Mr. Rivers' claims to favor economy in state government were ridiculed by Mr. Fort, who quoted the records to show that Rivers had voted against reducing the number of gasoline inspectors and saving the state vast sums. His record was also shown in the bank at Adel, where Mr. Rivers had obtained more than $3,000 in fees as liquidating agent and attorney for a defunct bank whose entire capital was only $25,000.

"That may explain why Mr. Rivers voted against a resolution calling for an investigation of the costs of liquidating nearly 100 banks which had gone broke in Georgia," said Mr. Fort. "Depositors, stockholders and creditors were waiting to recover what they could from the wreckage of the Adel bank, but Mr. Rivers had already gotten his, and it was in his pocket when he voted against that resolution."

Replying to Mr. Rivers' charges that Governor Hardman was trying to buy his election and that he bought it two years ago, Mr. Fort declared that this was an insult to the people of Georgia, a direct charge that the voters sold out in 1926. He declared that the Hardman record was a disgraceful record of money that in any statewide contest he had known, and that every dollar was being expended in a perfectly legitimate way.

Use of the many hundreds of highway department employees as political emissaries for Mr. Rivers was shown up by Mr. Fort, who quoted letters from all over Georgia to show that automobiles operated by the state are carrying Rivers' placards and that employees of the department are openly working for Rivers all over Georgia.

PEDESTRIAN, HIT BY LOCOMOTIVE ROD, DIES OF INJURIES

Sustaining a fractured skull when he was struck Sunday night by the driving rod of a locomotive at the Johns street crossing, George Culberson, 26, of 555 Plum street, died early Monday morning at Grady hospital.

Witnesses said Mr. Culberson was walking across the tracks and was halted several minutes by a passing train. This train passed by him as he was crossing directly behind it, walking into the side of a passenger locomotive moving in an opposite direction on another track.

Mr. Culberson had been in Atlanta only about five weeks, removing here from Phoenix City, Ala. He leaves his widow and three children.

CHAMBERS SPEAKS TO TOOMBS CROWD IN HARDMAN FAVOR

Lyons, Ga., August 27.—(Special) Gordon W. Chambers spoke to a large audience of Toombs county citizens here today in behalf of Governor Hardman's candidacy for reelection. The speaker criticized Senator Rivers in fiery terms and declared his record was one of "political machine alliance." The speaker predicted that Hardman would win by an even greater majority than he did in the primary two years ago. His remarks evoked much applause.

Positive Relief For Itch

A pleasant odored ointment known as Tetterine, containing highly effective parasite, germ-destroying and skin-healing properties, never fails to bring quick and permanent relief. Tetterine, by its clean, cooling, soothing, antiseptic effect, kills the parasites that bore into the skin, causing irritation and itching. Tetterine is sold and guaranteed by all druggists at 60c for a large box, or sent direct, postpaid, upon receipt of price. Slupline Co., Dept. 6, Savannah, Ga.—(adv.)

CHINESE RAIL OFFICIAL DIES; CAUSE MYSTERY

Harbin, Manchuria, August 27.—(AP)—Michael Lashevich, vice president and director general of the Chinese Eastern railway, died mysteriously Saturday. One rumor states that death was caused by an attack of quinsy. Another says that he committed suicide. Still another report stated that Lashevich was shot by a Manchurian army officer after they had quarreled.

BITING DOG'S OWNER MUST FACE CHARGES

Charges of permitting a vicious animal at large were made by the police Monday against Percy Neuville, of 947 Confederate avenue, after a dog said to have been owned by him bit four-year-old Sarah Williams on the hip. She was treated at Grady hospital and released.

$3.50 MONTGOMERY, ALA. And return. Saturday, Sept. 1st. Tickets good 3 days. A. & W. P. R. R.—(adv.)

Metcalfe Broadcasting From the Houstou

Just returned from New York City. "Oh, boy!" it is good to "come back" to Atlanta. Yep, I gave them Yankees up there all "my dead men's pictures." Only had street car fare left when I reached Atlanta. But you should see the Suits and Overcoats, Hats and Caps I traded your jack for. They will be on sale SOON in my Atlanta stores at the usual Metcalfe prices.

On account of continued rain, I find today I have left a lot of STRAW HATS, Men's PALM BEACH and LINEN SUITS, Summer Underwear and thin Sox.

Listen, I'll make a rummage sale of 'em for a couple of days and if you don't buy 'em at the ridiculous low price offered then I'll make a bonfire, 'cause what I got left in summer goods don't mean nothin' to me.

Five hundred Straw Hats, worth $2.00 and $3.00. Take any away for fifty cents.

Ninety-four Genuine Panama Hats left (all sizes), worth up to $7.50; now..... $2.50

Genuine Palm Beach Suits, price $10.00..... $3.00

Scotch Linen Suits, worth up to $15.00; going today for..... $3.95

OIL, YES!

Three hundred pairs (Satch Linen Trousers), all sizes, good style for any man. They were good sellers at $2.85. You get your size for the ridiculous price of..... 99c

Yes, ninety-nine cents, two pairs for $1.98. I tell you I am going to close out my summer goods to my customers or to small merchants.

(What Metcalfe Says Is So.)

Yours truly,
JOHN A. METCALFE (Owner).
MANUFACTURERS' OUTLET, 74 North Forsyth St.

Use of the many hundreds of highway department employees as political emissaries for Mr. Rivers was shown up by Mr. Fort, who quoted letters from all over Georgia to show that automobiles operated by the state are carrying Rivers' placards and that employees of the department are openly working for Rivers all over Georgia.

Why suffer with Rheumatism?

You know it cannot be rubbed away

ARE you one of those unfortunate ones who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, commonly called rheumatism, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep?

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"I suffered with rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so, I couldn't walk. I tried almost everything. Went to Hot Springs.... then finally decided to try S.S.S. I took a course. In a short time the rheumatic pains entirely left me. I am now in perfect health, and want to add that I have tried all kinds of medicines but I think S.S.S. is the best."—Earl C. Campbell, 115 West Main Street, Johnson City, Tenn.

—purely vegetable

S.S.S. is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. In two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

S.S.S. Builds Sturdy Health

Only Five More Days

of Our AUGUST FURNITURE SALE!

Although this is our first August Sale, our business has passed in volume our fondest expectations. If you have not already done so, you are cordially invited to share in these SOUND AUGUST FURNITURE VALUES! Our entire stock is brand new—nothing in our store more than six months old and most of our stock is only a few weeks old. All the new styles, woods, finishes and coverings are to be found in our large and varied stock of fine, dependable furniture and home furnishings—and yet you may take your pick during the next five days at our August Sale Prices!

To Serve You—Byron Akins, Albert Risley, Roy Akins

AKINS FURNITURE CO.

PHONE WALNUT 2339

262 PEACHTREE STREET, N. E.

ALLEGED ATLANTA FORGER CAPTURED

With 18 months and a continent separating Robert E. Blackford from an alleged bad check transaction here that netted him $2,500, Governor L. G. Hardman Monday afternoon was preparing extradition papers to return a man reported as Blackford by Los Angeles police.

Deputy Sheriff R. T. Tolbert plans to leave Atlanta today for California to return the prisoner for trial under a felony indictment returned in January, 1927.

Blackford and William G. Amos are jointly accused of cashing a fraudulent cashier's check on a downtown bank. While Memphis authorities arrested Blackford in November of 1927, Amos has not been heard from since.

At the time of Blackford's arrest in Memphis, a deputy sheriff was dispatched to return him, but bond had been allowed the prisoner, and service of the extradition was not obtained.

CAUGHT IN APARTMENT AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Calif., August 27.—(AP) Robert E. Blackford, said to be known also as Robert E. Blackbird, and Robert E. McRay, was arrested at his apartment yesterday by detectives for Atlanta authorities.

CRABTREE WILL CONTESTS ENDED

Boston, August 27.—(AP)—The much contested will of the late Lotta Crabtree, famous actress, disposing of her estate of more than $3,000,000, was allowed today by Judge William M. Prest of the Suffolk probate court after he had dismissed the claim of the last of the would-be contestants. Lotta Crabtree died in September, 1924, and her will was filed a few days later. Under its provisions much of the estate was left to charity, including $2,000,000 for a trust fund for disabled soldiers, sailors and women who served in the world war. It also contained bequests to several cousins.

Immediately several persons, claiming relationship announced their intentions of contesting the will and since then it has been tied up by legal proceedings. Eighty-seven persons claiming to be "next of kin" appeared to present claims against the estate.

The final claim disposed of today by Judge Prest was that of Mrs. Annie S. Fretwell, of San Francisco, a first cousin, who filed a petition for permission to enter her appearance for the purpose of contesting the will. Judge Prest denied the petition. His action permits distribution of the estate unless an appeal is taken by the contestants.

Boy, Saved From Pool, Quickly Regains Health

Howard Mullinax, 5, of 850 Boulevard, S. E., who was rescued from death by drowning in the Grant Park pool Sunday by George B. Hill (right), of 433 Ontario avenue.

Quite nonchalant over his narrow escape from drowning Sunday in the Grant park pool, when he was heroically rescued by George B. Hill, of 433 Ontario avenue, Howard Mullinax, 5, of 850 Boulevard, S. E., sat up Monday at Grady hospital and declared he was fully ready to go home. So doctors went into a hurried conference and reversed their decision of Sunday night that the boy was suffering an attack of bronchial pneumonia and pronounced it bronchitis. The youngster will probably be allowed to return home today, it was said. Howard slipped into the Grant park pool Sunday and was rescued by Mr. Hill, who plunged into the lake and brought the boy up unconscious from the bottom of the pool. Resuscitation methods applied by Mr. Hill and Homer C. King revived the boy. In the afternoon he was carried to Grady hospital.

ALBANIA TO BECOME MONARCHY SATURDAY

Vienna, August 27.—(AP)—Newspaper dispatches from Trieste bring a report that the speaker of the national assembly of Albania, which is sitting at Tirana, announced today that transfer of Albania from a republic into a monarchy will take place next Saturday and Sunday. This is a week later than the dates originally selected for the coronation ceremony and other festivities in connection with the naming of President Ahmed Zogu as ruler under the title of Scanderbeg III.

Now BULOVA
IS THE BIGGEST SELLING WRIST AND STRAP WATCH IN THE WORLD!
Every School Boy and Girl Should Have One.
EASY PAYMENT
MEGAHEE & TOMLINSON
Jewelers
14 Auburn, N. E. WA. 3089

NO TRACE FOUND OF AIR VOYAGERS

Port Townsend, Wash., August 27.—(AP)—An intensive two-day search of the bays and shore lands of this region for the giant tri-motored monoplane of the British Columbia Airways company, which vanished Saturday with four passengers and two pilots aboard, late today had yielded a host of rumors and reports, but nothing of the ship.

A report that the plane had been found at Washington Harbor, north-west of here, with seven bodies aboard, sent coast guard vessels on a wild goose chase this afternoon. The report proved untrue.

Oil spots were found on the surface of Washington harbor Saturday night and several persons insisted they heard a plane, flying in circles, and spluttering through the fog at about 11 a. m. Saturday, followed by a crash as if a large body had struck the water.

A fisherman told searchers that the plane had passed over his head twice the last time so low that he ducked. Almost immediately the plane seemed to strike the water, but he was not able to find a trace of the ship when he reached the spot.

Many persons reported having heard the plane in distress over other settlements in the peninsula. Airplanes, coast guard vessels, fishing boats and large numbers of volunteer searchers combed the bays and hillsides in the hope of finding some trace of the ship.

N. DAKOTA, MONTANA FOR SMITH, IS REPORT

New York, August 27.—(AP)—J. Nelson Kelly, of Fargo, N. D., democratic national committeeman, called at the party's headquarters here today to report on the situation in his state. "Our people feel," he said, "that during the last eight years Mr. Hoover has had many opportunities to do something in behalf of agriculture. Yet he has neither lifted hand nor voice for them. Under these conditions we feel in the northwest that we could not rely on Mr. Hoover as president to find the solution of our problems. On the other hand, we have confidence in Governor Smith."

The northwest regards Smith as a progressive and approves his "liberalization" program. J. Bruce Kramer, democratic national committeeman from Montana, told leaders at the national headquarters today. The farmers have had no relief since 1913, he said, when the democratic administration gave them better roads and established the land banks.

Kramer, a member of the democratic advisory committee, will remain at the national headquarters in an advisory capacity.

ALLEGED BANDIT DIES FROM BLOW

With the death early Monday night of Earl Selvidge, of 220 Luckie street, police have begun a thorough investigation.

(Photo by Walter Davis.)

RICHARD FLORENCE

gation of Richard Florence's claim that he hit Selvidge with his fist after Selvidge had held him up and robbed him of $7.

Florence, who resides at 245 1-2 Bankhead avenue, claims, according to police reports, that he was walking along Walton street Saturday night and when he reached the intersection of Walton and Forsyth streets, Selvidge confronted him and demanded that he give him his money. After giving over his money, according to Florence's statement, he hit Selvidge in the face with his fist and he fell to the pavement, the fall rendering him unconscious.

Patrolman E. N. Miller arriving at the scene, Selvidge was carried to Grady hospital and Florence was taken to police headquarters, where he is being held on a blanket charge of suspicion.

Selvidge died without regaining consciousness. His body will be taken this morning to Chattanooga for funeral services and interment.

C. V. Cheatham, who said he was Florence's companion at the time of the attack, but was walking several yards behind him on the street, told police that he saw Florence and Selvidge being carried to Grady hospital. He struck Selvidge when he attempted to snatch some money from his hand.

PHOENIX TORNADO WRECKED BUILDINGS

Phoenix, Ariz., August 27.—(AP)—A tornadoic storm made a whimsical 9-minute sweep through Phoenix and vicinity last night, injuring several persons and leaving in its wake wrecked buildings, unroofed houses and broken telephone poles. A check by city and county officers showed no loss of life. Property damage was estimated at $250,000.

The storm was the second of its type to visit Phoenix in three years, a lesser one having leveled six houses in the northeast part of the city in 1925. Last night's destruction centered near the Phoenix union high school. An auditorium under construction was leveled, a garage wrecked and telephone poles tossed about like toothpicks.

A bolt of lightning cut through three brick buildings as expertly as though workmen had started wrecking them. Although parts of the outer walls were left standing, the inner partitions were gone and the buildings were unroofed.

Lightning played a mischievous game with a sheet metal plant and sent scraps of sheet iron flying in all directions. A bolt struck the trolley power line and controller boxes on every street car in service spurted blue flame until the power went out.

The sixty-mile wind tipped roofs as it went along and rolled the tin roof of one dwelling into a huge ball and slammed it down on the sidewalk. Placing its shoulder to the box cars on railway tracks, the powerful wind sent them rolling, one string of cars being carried a block up a grade. Half-tones half an inch in diameter whirled in the storm.

EVANGELIST'S TIRADE ON SMITH RESENTED

Huntsville, Ala., August 27.—(AP)—Considerable public resentment was evidenced here today over the Rev. Bob Jones, itinerant evangelist and college professor of Panama City, Fla., ignoring an urgent request from officials of the local American Legion post that he not deliver a sermon tinged with politics at an outdoor meeting. The legion based its request on its claim to being non-partisan and non-sectarian.

In its efforts to prevent the evangelist speaking, the legion band appropriated the time allotted him for his concert. Efforts of adherents of the evangelist to stop the concert were futile, although upon its conclusion he spoke for more than an hour.

In the course of his address the Rev. Jones, who is actively exposing the defeat of Governor Alfred E. Smith in this democratic state, delivered a tirade against the democratic presidential nominee, the pope of Rome, Tammany Hall, the opposition press and his opponents in general in the state. At the outset he caustically criticized the legion's band for seeking to prevent him speaking, but declared he would not be denied in his efforts to bring about the defeat of "A. J. Smith and the liquor interests."

Foreign War Veterans Hold 29th Annual Meet in Indianapolis

Indianapolis, August 27.—(AP)—The first business meeting of the 29th annual national encampment of the veterans of foreign wars opened here this morning with a joint session of delegates to the encampment and the ladies' auxiliary. Separate business meetings were to be held this afternoon.

A reception to national officers and drill team contests will be held tonight.

YOUTH BLAMES JOYRIDE COMPLEX TO BLOW ON HEAD

A joyriding complex occasioned by a heavy blow on the head, for which a silver plate was inserted in his skull, caused Hoyt Hall to make off with two automobiles, the prisoner told Judge Virlyn B. Moore Monday in superior court.

After listening to the plea, in which Hoyt said he had never attempted to dispose of the machines, Judge Moore gave him 18 months on the chain-gang, directing the Hoyt be held at the river camp, where he would not be subjected to heavy labor.

ROBINSON'S FETE WILL BE HOLIDAY

Hot Springs, Ark., August 27.—(AP) One of the highest honors a state can bestow was conferred today upon Joe Robinson with the issuance by Governor Harvey Parnell of a proclamation declaring Thursday—the day of the senator's notification of his selection as democratic vice presidential nominee—a special holiday throughout Arkansas.

Referring to the senator as a "distinguished native son," the governor said in the proclamation that he regarded it as a "natural impulse that we should all desire to be present to pay tribute to the great southern leader, scholar and statesman and have a part in the historic event."

The proclamation, issued at Little Rock, the state capital, called upon all departments of the state to remain closed throughout Thursday and urged "all who can conveniently do so to attend the notification exercises."

Word of Action.

Word of the governor's action was received with enthusiasm by the Hot Springs committee on arrangements. This group for several days has been operating in high gear and unless some unforeseen hitch should develop, the event would be completed on scheduled time.

W. H. Martin, chairman of the arrangements committee and the man who a quarter of a century ago first placed Joe Robinson's name in nomination for congress, said that the program for Thursday has been tentatively agreed upon as follows:

From 6:00 to 8:00 p. m., band concert while crowd gathers. From 8:00 to 8:30 p. m., "The Star Spangled Banner" by the Infantry band, Arkansas national guard; meeting called to order by John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee; invocation by the Rev. J. Wayne Mann, Methodist Episcopal church, South, of Arkadelphia, Ark.; address of welcome by Governor Parnell.

Nation-Wide Loop.

It is expected these exercises will require 30 minutes and up to this point the program will have been broadcast only by station KTHS, the Hot Springs station.

At 8:30 o'clock the program will be broadcast from a nation-wide hookup of 30 or more radio stations.

Mr. Raskob will introduce Claude G. Bowers, of New York city, who will deliver notification address.

Speech of acceptance by Senator Robinson. Benediction by Rabbi A. B. Rhine, of Hot Springs.

Mr. Robinson probably will require 40 minutes to deliver his speech.

The senator, who spent most of the day in his apartment at the Arlington hotel going over his address, said the selection of the Rev. Mr. Mann and Rabbi Rhine to deliver the invocation and benediction, was at his request.

"You know," he explained, "I was Mr. Mann's first teacher and taught him his A B C's and Rabbi Rhine and myself have been friends for years."

MISS WILLIAMS DIES AT GREENSBORO HOME

Greensboro, Ga., August 27.—(Special)—Miss Josephine Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, died suddenly at her home here today of a heart attack. Although Miss Williams had not been in robust health for some time, she seemed as well as usual today and had been up town shopping and stopped by the office of her father, who is editor of the Herald-Journal, and corrected some copy.

When she returned home she remarked that she would go to her room and rest. In a short time she was found dead by her little sister, who went to call her for lunch.

Miss Williams was one of the most beautiful and popular young girls of Greensboro, and her death comes as a great shock to the entire community. Of an unusually sweet and amiable disposition she was beloved by all who knew her. Besides her parents, she is survived by two brothers, Cranston and Charles, of Nashville, prominent in the newspaper world, and Gary J. Williams, of Greensboro, assistant editor of the Herald-Journal, and three sisters, Mrs. Charles R. Caldwell, of Greensboro; Mrs. A. W. Morris, of Augusta, and Miss Mary Jim Williams, of Greensboro. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

LEVINE AND MABEL CROSS CHANNEL IN OCEAN PLANE

Croydon, England, August 27.—(AP) Charles A. Levine flew his new Junkers plane "Queen of the Air" to Brussels today, waited there 90 minutes for a new undercarriage wheel, and flew back again to Croydon. He was accompanied by Miss Mabel Boll.

Miss Boll said the trip had nothing to do with Mr. Levine's proposed trans-Atlantic flight for which were not yet complete. In anticipation of the takeoff of the plane for America, a special mile-long runway is being constructed at the airfield here.

American Imperialism Mexico's Big Danger, Says Count Karolyi

Mexico City, August 27.—(AP)—Ex-ambassador's correspondent in Vera Cruz quotes Count Michael Karolyi as saying just prior to departing on a return trip to New York, that the gravest danger facing Mexico is American imperialism.

The best means of defense from this imperialism is through development of social institutions, the former president of Hungary is quoted as having said.

DEERAN IS GIVEN 15-YEAR SENTENCE

A 40-minute socialistic address delivered Monday before a crowded courtroom by Harry M. Deeran, who used his experience as a soap-box orator in pleading guilty to attempting to murder two postal officials July 16 was supplemented by Judge John D. Humphries in passing sentence of 15 to 20 years.

The superior court jurist told Deeran his political ideas, as demonstrated when he shot Postoffice Inspectors Joe P. Johnston and Morgan Griswold in protest against "institutional tyranny," were "out of harmony" with American principles of government.

Deeran, discharged two years ago as a Boston mailcarrier, came to Atlanta to revenge himself upon the government, he has said in several statements.

Twice since his imprisonment Deeran has asked to be allowed to plead guilty, and to have his demerit removed from his record. Judge Humphries was ready to proceed with Deeran's trial Monday when the prisoner, after a conference with his attorney, Henry Troutman, asked again that he be allowed to confess.

Small of stature, gray-haired and neatly-dressed, he then rose to his feet and launched into an impassioned discourse.

Both Inspectors Johnston, shot in the shoulder, and Griswold, hit in the throat, have recovered. Deeran admitted guilt to two assault and murder indictments for shooting them, and another for carrying a concealed weapon.

No auditor to his speech was more attentive than Deeran's wife, who sat in a front seat, raptly absorbed. She had nothing to say in the proceedings, and, like Deeran, raised no protest when the speaker was interrupted by Judge Humphries in passing sentence.

CURTIS STARTS TOUR TO MAKE SPEECHES

Washington, August 27.—(AP)—Senator Curtis, the republican vice presidential nominee, set out today on his second speaking trip of the campaign, heading for New York and Pennsylvania.

At Syracuse, N. Y., tomorrow, the senator will address the state fair. Speaking under the auspices of the American farm bureau, he is prepared to discuss the agricultural situation in the home state of Governor Smith, the democratic presidential nominee.

On his return to the capital, Curtis will go by Harrisburg, Pa., where he has been invited by the National Grange, to talk at a picnic of Pennsylvania farmers, on Thursday. Again the farm situation will probably be discussed in this appearance.

Next week Senator Curtis will go into New England with addresses planned for Massachusetts and Maine.

TUSKEGEE PRINCIPAL COMMENDS HOOVER

Washington, August 27.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover's speech accepting the republican nomination, was commended by Dr. R. R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee institute, Tuskegee, Ala., in a message to A. L. Holsey, secretary of the Colored Voters division of the republican committee, which was given out today at republican headquarters.

Dr. Moton, successor to the late Booker T. Washington, said that he felt Hoover "was the spokesman of the finest and best in American life."

Nerve Pains Eased Almost Instantly

If you're subject to nervous headache, neuralgia and sciatica you'll find soothing relief in Stankback Headache Powders. They act almost instantly, yet leave no bad after effect.

"I never fail to recommend Stankback with confidence to anyone who is subject to headache or pains," writes Mrs. T. M. Swann, of Gastonia, N. C. And Mrs. Swann is but one of thousands of women all over the South who are enjoying comforting relief with this time tested remedy.

Stankback is the formula of an eminent druggist and is sold and recommended by dealers everywhere.

10¢ 25¢ STANKBACK FOR PAIN

Constipation and Biliousness Cause High Blood Pressure

If Arteries fail, call a doctor. 50¢ and $1.00 a box. Your druggist's or send direct with description booklet. Atlanta, Ga. Dept. C, Atlanta, Ga.

Chronic Disease

Of men and women suffering from chronic disease, the most modern and approved non-surgical methods by a specialist, list of rears of clinical cases, showing the success of treatment by my modern system which is universally approved.

I am permanently located—Reputation firmly established. Practice conducted along the highest professional standards by a specialist. Consultation or professional advice. Call and investigate my time-tried and proven methods.

Hours, 10 a. m. to 6 p. m., 11 to 1 a. m. Wednesday and Saturday Nights 7 to 9 o'clock.

Dr. T. W. Hughes, Specialist
1314 N. Broad St. Atlanta, Ga.

Special! For Few SHELL FRAMES

Comfortable, Durable, Stylish, "They Grace the Face."

$1.25

Dr. John Kahn, Registered Optician, 26 Years in Atlanta.

Eyes examined by most modern scientific method known. (No drugs.) All lenses ground to order at special low prices.

J. M. HIGH CO.
Optical Dept., Street Floor, Near Shoe Dept.

THE NEW FRIGIDAIRE

YOU DON'T HEAR IT START •• YOU DON'T HEAR IT STOP
YOU DON'T HEAR IT RUN

Special demonstration all this week •• Come in and see for yourself this latest development in automatic refrigeration

THIS is more than the announcement of a new refrigerator . . . more than the demonstration of a new product. It is the first presentation of a new idea of quiet, convenient, truly automatic refrigeration.

Ice freezing power? The New Frigidaire has reserves of power for every emergency. Conveniences? The New Frigidaire conveniences were planned by domestic science experts . . . for women. Beautiful? The New Frigidaire is built to harmonize in line and color with the modern kitchen. Quiet? Incredibly quiet. You don't hear it start. You don't hear it stop. You don't hear it run. And in the development of these features authorities in many different fields were consulted and all the experience gained in the production of more than 500,000 Frigidaires for actual service, was called upon.

On Thursday we first announced the New Frigidaire. By Saturday night hundreds of people had seen a demonstration and were talking about it. You should see it for yourself today.

See the New Frigidaire for yourself . . . today

We have arranged a special demonstration of what The New Frigidaire will do for you in your own home.

We want you to see the compact, powerful, incredibly quiet compressor. We want you to find out for yourself that you don't hear it start, stop or run. We want you to check the new conveniences. We want you to see how much time, work and worry they will save you.

The special demonstration lasts all this week. See the beautiful cabinets, the wide range of models and prices. For your convenience we are open each night until ten o'clock. But don't put it off. Come in now.

Low prices . . . easy terms

The Frigidaire Corporation believes that every household in America should have automatic refrigeration . . . for health . . . for convenience . . . for economy. And so The New Frigidaire carries new low prices and easy terms . . . prices and terms which make it possible for everyone to have the benefits of Frigidaire now. Come in this week and find out about them.

Note that the shelves of this new Frigidaire cabinet are all at convenient height. No stooping is necessary. Frigidaire engineers made it possible to conceal the compressor completely . . . in a separate compartment at the bottom of the cabinet . . . even in the basement if desired.

ATLANTA SALES BRANCH
252 Peachtree St. Atlanta, Ga.

FOSTER PREDICTS VICTORY FOR SMITH

Monroe, Ga., August 27.—(AP)—Albert G. Foster, of Madison, addressed a large crowd of Walton county voters at the noon recess of superior court today in the interest of the national democratic ticket.

Judge Foster has just returned from a 10 days stay in New York city and spent much time at democratic national headquarters. He was profoundly impressed with the enthusiasm manifested by leading democrats and if assured of democratic success in November.

Judge Foster paid high tribute to the courage and ability Governor Smith and said that his record as governor of New York stamped him as one of the foremost statesmen of the nation.

FAMILY OF MISSING THOMASTON MAN FEAR FOR SAFETY

Thomaston, Ga., August 27.—(AP)—The family of J. D. Ellington, local merchant and peach grower who disappeared a week ago, was still without word today concerning his whereabouts. Mr. Ellington is reported to have lost heavily on his peach crop this year and had worried over the matter frequently, friends said.

The speaker declared that the democratic party was the only party which southern white people could afford to affiliate and said that the republican party had its birth in enmity to the south, southern people and southern institutions.

The address created a highly favorable impression upon those who heard it.

TALMADGE FLAYS ADAMS' CHARGES

Cumming, Ga., August 27.—In his speech here today Commissioner of Agriculture Eugene Talmadge discussed the campaign statements being made by his opponent, G. C. Adams, relative to the comparative cost of operation of the department of agriculture for the first six months of the Talmadge administration and the six-month period of the Brown administration. Mr. Adams has repeatedly said, based on the "withdrawals from the treasury" by the two commissions in the time named, the Talmadge administration cost over $5,000 more for six months than did the Brown administration. In referring to this in his speech today Mr. Talmadge said:

"Fred T. Bridges, the originator, director and boss of the campaign of Mr. Adams, in the newspaper propaganda he is writing over the signature of Mr. Adams, caused to be published Sunday a repetition of these same things, when Hon. Sam J. Slate, in a statement published the past week over his signature, conclusively proved them to be untrue, unfounded and improper. Bridges, using Mr. Adams' name, goes further and causes to be printed the statement that 'Talmadge fears audit, says Adams'."

"It is absolutely useless flattery to bandy words, but, for the information of the people of the state, I want to quote from Mr. Slate as follows:

"My own judgment has not been to make audits during a heated political campaign. These audits are properly a public record and are then dissected. Detailed figures are taken from their surroundings and I have had many words only to convey a false impression. The use to which they are put is simply that of political partisan advantage. In such ways the confidence of the people is disturbed."

"I submit further that Mr. Slate has answered that whole question fully and completely, but at the same time I desire to say, in order to fully make clear the attitude of the agricultural department, that the auditor of Georgia has been told in the past, and is aware of the fact, that this department stands ready to be audited at any time in his judgment it is advisable, or whenever the governor of the state thinks it advisable or needed. Further than that the department is, always has been and always will be, as Mr. Slate knows, ready to turn over its records, books and its assistance to him in making any audit he desired, even if it be once a month, or every day if he desires it. There is no fear in the department of a visit from Auditor Slate, but rather a feeling of cordiality always, and a ready recognition of his official functions and duties and ability."

"The Adams statements, prepared by Fred Bridges, gives the total 'withdrawals from the state treasury' for the first six months of 1928, in my administration, as $194,873.18, and for the five months and 25 days of the Brown administration in 1927, at $189,265.43."

"Now, get this point. Let me quote from the state auditor himself, again: 'The legislature of 1927, in the general appropriation act, pages 12 and 13, required Mr. Talmadge to pay $8,912.33, a past due account for printing the market bulletin, an account made before he became commissioner. This account was paid out of the general appropriation of $100,000, made for 1928.'"

"That alone covers more than the $5,000 Bridges makes Mr. Adams say my department cost in excess of Brown's cost and—get this, please—that $8,912.33 was J. J. Brown's unpaid bill, left over by him, and I had to pay it."

House of DuPont Divided; Brothers To Split Ballot

Philadelphia, August 27.—(United News.)—The House of DuPont is politically divided, according to a lengthy statement written in the form of an open letter, by Laumot Du Pont, president of E. I. Du Pont de Nemours & Co., which will appear in the Philadelphia Public Ledger Tuesday. Taking an opposite stand to his brother Pierre, Laumot said he is republican and will vote for Herbert Hoover in the presidential election.

Du Pont said in the letter one of the major reasons for remaining republican is the fact that he does not consider the prohibition issue vital enough to influence him in favor of Governor Smith and the democratic party, as it did his brother.

Gives Political Views.

He says in answer to the Ledger's request for his political attitude:

"You have asked me for my political views. Briefly, I am a republican and will vote for Mr. Hoover. Having always voted the republican ticket, this statement is not surprising, but in view of the fact that since the present campaign began several prominent and staunch republicans have gone over to the democratic camp, some explanation might be of interest."

Du Pont agrees with the rebellious republicans that enforcement has proven an evil and regrets Hoover's stand on the issue at the same time admiring Smith's stand for modification.

No Vital Question.

Nevertheless he does not consider prohibition vital enough to swing him away from republicanism. He continues:

"While I agree with the stated views of these men as to the evils of prohibition, I profoundly regret the stand of Mr. Hoover, as indicated in that extract from his speech, and strongly commend Governor Smith for his courage and his wisdom in advocating change of prohibition laws, yet I do not agree that prohibition is of paramount importance, nor that if all other questions out of deference to it should go by the board or be left to settle themselves."

Important Problems.

"A group of problems before the government of this country which, as a group, are more important than prohibition, are those subjects which involve the economic welfare of its people—the tariff, farm relief, railway regulation, federal reserve, government ownership, etc. It is true that, judged solely by the adopted platforms of the two parties, there is not a radical difference in principle between the two parties. The difference is more in the elaboration of the principles or putting them into effect. We must judge the parties in this respect, not by their

Daring Girl Will Wrestle With Tiger in Circus Here

Miss Mabel Stark, daring girl performer, wrestling with "Rajah" in his circus cage.

Miss Mabel Stark, the only girl in the world with sufficient nerve to wrestle "Rajah," a ferocious Royal Bengal tiger, is one of the outstanding features of the 1928 performance of John Robinson's circus. Miss Stark will display her daring when the Robinson circus comes to Spiller field for afternoon and night exhibitions on Monday, September 3.

Known throughout the entire world as the foremost woman animal trainer of the present generation, Miss Stark handles groups of savage jungle-bred animals that a male subjugator would hesitate to train. In addition to wrestling "Rajah" Miss Stark will appear

DECATUR B. Y. P. U. HOLDING CLASSES

Decatur, Ga., August 27.—(Special.)—The annual Baptist Young People's union training school for officers and teachers began at the First Baptist church at Decatur Monday night, and will continue through Friday night, at which time the closing exercises will be held.

Many prominent speakers have been obtained to deliver addresses during the closing program, and prominent church workers are in charge of the sessions. Classes will be held daily at 6:30 p. m., following which supper will be served. After supper the second evening classes will hold a study.

Churches of Clarkston, Stone Mountain, Decatur and Avondale are participating in the classes.

formal platforms, but by their past performances.

"Under republican government for the past eight years, and in some periods before, we have had prosperity. Under democratic administration we have had less prosperity and, usually, hard times."

Maintain in Future.

"It seems reasonable to suppose that this difference in the future, or at least until such time as the democratic party makes a radical change in the principles which govern its economic view, they have not yet given indications of such change."

Pierre Du Pont, who in addition to his connections with the Du Pont Powder company, is chairman of the board of directors of General Motors Corporation, recently offered to resign that position so that he might actively engage in politics without embarrassing the company. The resignation was declined and he was instead granted an indefinite leave of absence.

Pierre Du Pont at that time announced he would support Governor Smith very largely because of the New York governor's stand on the prohibition question.

A Good PRESCRIPTION FOR LOSS OF WEIGHT

That USED by New York hospital physician became famous because of its beneficial effects. People in far away places heard of this famous, strengthening and flesh building prescription and began using it with excellent results.

Viogen Tonic Tablets contain Iron, Phosphorus, Sodium, Calcium and Phosphorus and other valuable tonic and digestive agents—essential in building blood, bone and tissue and in restoring the vital powers. Sold by Jacobs and leading druggists everywhere. Satisfaction guaranteed.

They Called Her Scrawny But Not For Long

Is your face drawn and pinched? Your skin flabby? Are your cheeks sunken with great hollows under the eyes? Does your figure show unbecoming angles instead of the softly rounded curves of youth?

All these conditions rob you of attractiveness and make you look old. But worst of all, these may actually be the symptoms of simple anemia—that dread ailment so often suffered by women.

There's nothing so good as McCoy's Tablets to put on firm flesh, round out face and figure and build up rich, red blood.

So if you need a few pounds of flesh to round out the hollows, if you want to get back old-time energy and health, get a box of McCoy's Tablets today. Just a short treatment will make you look and feel like a new person.

McCoy takes all the risk—Read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 six-cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 one-dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health—your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price.

RIVERS ADDRESSES THREE AUDIENCES

Barnesville, Ga., August 27.—Senator E. D. Rivers spoke to large gatherings of the voters of Upson, Pike and Lamar counties today at Barnesville, Zebulon and Barnesville, respectively, and continued to be well received in making his canvass before the people of the state in the interest of his race for governor.

Senator Rivers continued his advocacy of a progressive program for the state, outlining his plans for the reduction of the state departments from more than 80 to 14, increased pensions and more prompt payment of these pensions to the Confederate veterans, better advantages for the school children of the state and the completion of paved highways throughout the state at an early date without any cost to the counties.

Senator Rivers flayed Dr. Hardman and his campaign managers for spreading "propaganda" over the state that he said cannot be substantiated by actual proof. Senator Rivers reiterated his plan to meet the governor in joint debate at any place the chief executive may designate to discuss the issues of the campaign before the voters of the state and to give the governor an opportunity to prove the charges he has made against him.

Senator Rivers again took occasion to take issue with the policies of the governor in his campaign for reelection by spending vast sums of money in the interest of his candidacy and said:

"It seems that Governor Hardman is making an effort to buy the birthright of the voters of the state of Georgia by taking advantage of a man with lesser means, paying out more than $6,000 weekly in advertising unwarranted charges against my record that he cannot substantiate by meeting me face to face, as I have challenged him to do and by asking questions through the medium of newspaper advertising that he knows I am financially unable to answer through the same medium."

Senator Rivers spoke to a packed courthouse of 1,500 people at Barnesville with more than 300 turned away for lack of space. He was introduced in the Upson county capital by Hon. E. E. Hightower, Jr., who praised the senator's record as a statesman. At Zebulon Senator Rivers was introduced by Colonel E. O. Dobbs, who likewise praised the senator's record as a public official of the state of Georgia. He was received at Barnesville, where he spoke in the city park because the courthouse of Lamar county is not large enough to accommodate the vast throng who came to hear Senator Rivers.

Both

TO CONSERVE A GIRL'S ENERGY
and
TO AID BUSINESS

Telephone WALnut 3755

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS

Extra Special Shirts, Union Suits Pajamas, Golf Hose

At this time o' year we have general house cleaning. Broken lots, odds and ends, or whatever the reason for drastic price reductions, we gather them together and pass them on to our customers at reduced prices.

Union Suits, 98c

Special lot of knee-length union suits, regular $2.50 value, for quick clearance at 98c.

Tan and White Shirts, 98c

Regular $3.50 values. Not very many in the lot; a splendid purchase at 98c.

Silk Pajamas

Beautiful silk pajamas, formerly sold at $6, $8 and $10; at 25% off.

Golf Socks

Good assortment of patterns, nice selection of colors—extraordinary values. 25% off.

HIRSCH BROTHERS
74 Whitehall St.

HEAD-TO-FOOT OUTFITTERS FOR MEN AND BOYS

OFFICES, SHOPS OR DISPLAY ROOMS

No building in the South offers more distinctive services than the Peachtree Arcade.

Every business man who values convenience and accessibility should consider the superior advantages offered here.

Apply to Room 200

The Peachtree Arcade

Corn King LIMITED

A super train for travelers who demand the best

BETWEEN Chicago— Omaha—Sioux City

Lv. Chicago 6:05 pm Ar. Omaha 7:25 am Ar. Sioux City 8:15 am

The only double track railroad between Chicago and Omaha and the only railroad protected by automatic train control all the way between these cities.

A Triumph in Transportation

Hyatt Quiet Roller Bearings
Ray Glass enclosed Solarium
Bedrooms, single or en suite
Medicine Cabinets and Clothes Closets
Individual Porcelain Washbowls
New North Western type coil spring cushion mattresses—you can sleep

Luxurious Club Lounge
Famous Table d'Hôte Dinner
Real Soda Fountain
Parchment shaded Lights
Servitor Service
Compartment for hand luggage in Club Car
Electric Cigar lighters
Very latest type of ventilating, lighting and heating

Why Not Make This Your Route of Travel

NORTH WESTERN CHICAGO & RAILWAY
The Best of Everything in the Best of the West

J. H. SCHULTZ, General Agent
317 Healy Bldg.
Phone Walnut 2146, Atlanta, Ga.

DAVISON PAXON CO.

Key-to-Thrift Sales!

Tuesday! One Day Only!

ONE DAY ONLY! ODD LOTS AND BROKEN ASSORTMENTS FROM EVERY FLOOR — AT FRACTIONAL PRICES!

Final Clearaway!

15 FUR COATS

Amazingly Low-Priced for Key-to-Thrift Day---

Re-Fashion Them Into Good Styles for This Winter!

3 Sealine Coats Self Collar and Cuffs. Originally $85.	1 Tan Caracul Coat Fox Collar, Cuffs. Originally $195.	1 Hudson Seal Coat Squirrel Collar and Cuffs. Originally $300.
1 Grey Caracul Coat Grey Fox Collar. Originally $97.50.	2 Grey Caracul Coats Fox Collar and Cuffs. Originally $225.	1 Hudson Seal Coat Squirrel Trim-mings. Originally $300.
1 Tan Caracul Coat Self-Trimmed. Originally $110.	1 Hudson Seal Coat Self-Trimmed Collar. Originally $225.	1 Hudson Seal Coat Squirrel Collar and Cuffs. Originally $300.
1 Grey Caracul Coat Grey Fox Collar. Originally $158.	1 Hudson Seal Coat Self Shawl Collar. Originally $250.	1 Hudson Seal Coat Nat. Squirrel Shawl Collar. Originally $250.

Davison-Paxon Co., Fur Shop, Third Floor

Sheer Batiste
Slumber
Pillow Cases

29c Each

Formerly 49c Ea.

Made in Ireland of sheer striped batiste. Remarkable value!

Second Floor.

8 to 12-Year
Hats and Raincoats

$1.95

Originally $4.95

10 Coats with matching hats in red, green and blue. Sizes 8 to 12. Slightly soiled.

Third Floor.

Clean and Fresh!
Hickory
Sanitary Goods

Step-ins 39c and $1.69
Formerly 49c and $2.94

Bloomers 69c
Formerly 79c

Baby Pants 15c
Formerly 39c

Third Floor.

Silk and Leather Bags

Bags formerly 94c to $1.94.....49c
Bags formerly $1.94 to $2.94.....94c
Bags formerly $3.94.....$1.94
Bags formerly $4.94.....$2.94
Bags formerly $6.94 to $18.00.....$4.94
Bags formerly $22.50.....$10.00

Street Floor.

Clearaway!
Sportsweat

22 two-pc. linen sports suits, $2.95, now.....$1.95
2 Flat Crepe Sports Frocks, $10.95, now.....$6.95
1 White crepe de chine Jackette, $9.75, now.....$9.75
19 Washable flat crepe frocks, $16.50, now.....$11.50
1 Transparent velvet Jackette, $25.00, now.....$19.50

Third Floor

Hickory
Tea Aprons

10c

Formerly 23c

Colorful aprons with tape bound edges. Splendid for every day use.

Street Floor

Clearaway!
Needlework!

49c

Originally 59c to $1.19

Hand bags to be made of raffia, shopping bags and laundry bags and aprons.

Fourth Floor

Clearaway!
Stamped Pieces

10c ea.

Originally 25c to 49c Ea.

Odd lot of stamped pieces, vanity sets, boudoir pillows, pot holders, Stayso cuff holders, etc.

Fourth Floor

DAVISON PAXON CO.

ATLANTA •• affiliated with MACY'S, New York

SALES OF TOBACCO REACH NEW MARK

Tobacco sales in Georgia during the four weeks period ended August 25, 1928, were 74,861,759 pounds, or approximately 23,500,000 pounds greater than for the corresponding period of 1927, but value of tobacco sold during the 1927 period was the greater, the Georgia crop reporting service announced today.

The average price during the first four weeks of the present season was 13.26 cents per pound, for a total value of $9,929,144.40, as compared with an average of 20.07 cents, and a total of $10,281,000.27 for the 1927 period, the announcement showed.

Sales during the fourth week of the 1928 season were announced as 22,498,283 pounds, at an average price of 11.64 cents per pound, for a total value of $2,736,025.76. Fourth week sales of 1927 were 19,200,529 pounds, at an average price of 18.55 cents per pound, for a total of $3,505,027.16.

A revision of sales for the third week of this season was announced today to include sales of the Metter market. The revision gave third week sales as 23,274,706 pounds, at an average price of 14.55 cents, for a total value of $3,382,827.53. The Metter market's third week sales were 1,101,588 pounds, at an average price of 12.72.

SALVATION ARMY COMMANDER BACK FROM NEW ORLEANS

Commissioner William A. McIntyre, commander of the Salvation Army in the south, returned to southern territorial headquarters here Monday after opening a new young people's camp for life saving scouts and life saving guards in New Orleans and inspecting new divisional headquarters there.

A new record for telephone contributions of old clothing and furniture to the Salvation Army social service center was established on the opening day of "moving week" Monday when 1200 housewives called Ivy 2224 to send for material to be discarded in the process of transferring household effects to new addresses.

Arrangements to send promptly for proffered material were made by Staff Captain W. H. Range, former commander, prior to his departure Monday for new duties at Louisville, Kentucky.

UNCLE NED JONES GROUP WILL MEET THIS WEEK

The annual reunion of the Uncle Ned Jones branch of the Jones family will be held Friday in Grant Park, according to Mrs. J. L. Beavers, secretary. This is the twenty-third reunion, the meetings being held regularly on the last Friday in August. W. P. Jones, of Forest Park, is president of the group.

Expect To Complete New Viaducts By April, Says Construction Chief

Photos by Kenneth Rogers, Staff Photographer.

The new Wall street viaduct which will connect the Pryor street and Central avenue viaducts with the Whitehall street viaduct is shown in the top picture. The Kimball house is seen in the background. Work of joining up the large structural beams for the connecting level has been practically completed. The lower picture shows the same shot from the new Wall street level underneath. The street is paved from Central avenue to Pryor street, and in the background can be seen one of the steam shovels grading the stretch from Pryor street to Whitehall and Peachtree.

Completion of the Pryor street and Central avenue viaducts by April was forecast Monday by E. O. Donaldson, superintendent of construction of the MacDougal Construction company. This prediction was made despite the inclement weather of the past several weeks which has retarded progress to a marked degree.

A total of 250 men are already on the job and that number will be increased to about 500 within the next two weeks.

The most spectacular stretch of work is the new street level on Wall street which will connect the projects with the Whitehall street viaduct. Tons of structural steel and concrete will form the new road level, which will be a new viaduct along the east side of Wall street. The street underneath already is paved from Pryor street to Central avenue and work of grading the lower level from Pryor street to the Whitehall street viaduct is now under way.

Work on the structural steel is practically completed. Two large seven-ton trucks carrying giant cranes have been used to swing the 15-ton girders into place. Even larger girders will be used in construction of the viaducts proper. It was announced by W. A. Gilmer, superintendent of construction for the Buchanan Construction company, of Birmingham, in charge of the steel work.

Ninety per cent of all foundations have been completed, and most of this work yet to be done is on Pryor street. This thoroughfare will be closed some time this week and utility corporations will be permitted to go into it and lay gas, telephone, sewer, electric and other lines, and the city will begin the work of filling it.

Officials of the Georgia Power company have announced that $5 per cent of its work in the area is finished, at an estimated cost of $350,000. Pouring of concrete on the lower level of Central avenue is in progress and work on the approach from the south is also under way.

Improvements of the power company in the area are the most pretentious and intricate of the kind ever performed in this section of the south. It was stated by W. C. Carr, Jr., manager of the Empire Construction company, a subsidiary of the power company.

Practically all the sidewalk work on Hunter street has been completed, and actual pouring of the sidewalks on Central avenue is now in progress.

The power company already has laid a new street car track on Hunter street, on the new level grade, four feet higher than the former street level, and is now ready to extend the line to the Central avenue bridge.

EIGHT NEW SMITH CLUBS ORGANIZED

Organization of a new democratic club in Terrell county and the reporting of the completion of seven other counties in the organization work was announced Monday by John R. Slater, manager of the state democratic campaign. These clubs will work for the election of the Smith and Robinson ticket in the November election.

Mrs. Edgar Alexander, chairman of the woman's division, announced that rapid progress is being made in the organization of county units of the woman's democratic campaign.

Mrs. Franklin to Aid It also was announced by Mrs. Alexander that Mrs. H. M. Franklin, of Terrell, has accepted an appointment as a member of the board of advisors of the woman's division. Mrs. Franklin is one of the best known women in the state, having served as president of the state organization of the daughters of the American Revolution and of the state United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mr. Slater's statement, covering the latest reports of organization work, follows:

"A militant democratic club for Terrell county, was organized at a mass meeting held at Duwauk Saturday morning. H. A. Wilkinson was elected chairman and R. R. Marlin, secretary.

"Resolutions adopted pledged loyal support to all of the democratic nominees including national, state, county and municipal, and called upon all democrats to actively aid in securing the election of democratic nominees. These resolutions also request the registrars in Terrell county remove from the voters list in Terrell county primary the names of all those who vote the republican ticket in the approaching presidential election; and they called upon all loyal democrats within the county to withhold contributions from any and all organizations now engaged in fighting the democratic party or any of its nominees.

"These resolutions which were offered by R. R. Marlin, were unanimously passed. Stirring speeches were made by Chairman Wilkinson, Judge J. A. Laing, chairman board of county commissioners, and W. H. Carr, former solicitor of the city court.

"In his report of the meeting Secretary Marlin said: The meeting was enthusiastic in every particular, and I am quite sure that on November 6, 1928, Terrell will be found as it always has been, strong for the democratic party.

"Announcement of the organization of seven new county-wide democratic clubs was made Monday by Manager John R. Slater, of the democratic national campaign in Georgia. These seven bring the total number of county clubs already organized up to 103.

"The following are the new organizations with their chairmen: Appling county, Dan Minchew, Baxley, Ga.; Wilcox county, C. S. Hunt, Rochelle, Ga.; Calhoun county, R. A. Dozier, Arlington, Ga.; Dougherty county, Dan L. Gibson, Albany, Ga.; Walton county, A. Morris Kelly, Monroe, Ga.; DeKalb county, R. W. Wilson, Bainbridge, Ga.; Elbert county, Jack Haley, Elberton, Ga."

World's Highest Building To Cost $45,000,000

Chicago, August 27.—(P)—The world's tallest building, which will be 88 feet taller than the Woolworth building and which will have a daytime population of 18,000, will be under construction by next February, it was announced today by Walter W. Ashlagger, the architect.

The structure, to be known as the Chicago Tower, will occupy two square blocks over the Illinois Central tracks at Wacker drive, east of Michigan Boulevard. It will represent an investment of $45,000,000.

The Chicago Tower will have an approximate floor area of 4,639,034 square feet, as compared with the 4,000,000 square feet of floor space in the merchandise mart now under construction six blocks to the west. Although a unit, it will be in reality three types of buildings, one for office space, another for the Chicago apparel mart and the third for a hotel.

CRUSADE HINTED AS BOYKIN AID'S HOME IS ROBBED

Launching what might appear to be a crusade against officers of the law, thieves Monday invaded the home of Marvin Baker, special investigator for solicitor John A. Boykin, 1301 DeSoto avenue, and stole several dollars from Mrs. Baker's purse.

Mr. Baker was the second county official in three days to be victim of robbers. Deputy Sheriff Gordon Hardy was held up Saturday night and robbed at the point of a gun.

THREE PERSONS SLIGHTLY INJURED AS CARS COLLIDE

Three persons were slightly injured and two cars badly damaged early Monday night in a collision at the intersection of Fourteenth and State streets.

J. L. Hood, of 1062 McMillan street, was driving south on State street and collided with a machine driven by W. H. Pitman, of Ocean View, Va., who was driving east on Fourteenth street. Mr. and Mrs. Pitman, and G. W. Carroll, 1068 Hemphill avenue, who was riding with Hood, were slightly injured in the accident.

Witnesses stated, according to police reports, that Pitman failed to stop for the boulevard stop signal. A charge of reckless driving was booked against Pitman. None of the injured were taken to a hospital.

A Delicious Aid To Digestion

Your druggist or grocer can now supply you with the delicious Shivar Pale Dry Ginger Ale, prepared with the celebrated Shivar Mineral Water, pure digestive aromatics and select ginger root.

You will find Shivar a wonderful aid to digestion and a most delicious beverage. Ask your favorite dealer to order a family package, one dozen, for you from the

WHOLESALE DISTRIBUTORS
Atlanta, J. N. Hirsch.
Atlanta, Talmadge Bros.
Carterville, Carterville Grocery Co.
Ontonagon, Canton Wholesale Co.
Ontonagon, Consolidated Grocery Co.
Dalton, Dalton Grocery Co.
Griffin, Griffin Grocery Co.
LaGrange, LaGrange Grocery Co.
Newman, E. V. Kell Co.
Rome, Consolidated Grocery Co.
West Point, West Point Whol. Gro. Co.

CRICHTON'S
Shorthand
Take our FREE DEMONSTRATION LESSON and you will understand how this wonderful shorthand can be mastered in four months or less.
In Atlanta Nearly 40 Years Crichton's Business College Whitehall and Trinity

Cuticura Soap
A World Famous Aid to Beauty
CLEANS and purifies the skin and hair, restoring them to their natural, fresh and wholesome beauty. Its daily use maintains them in a delightfully healthy condition. Cuticura Soap has been remarkably successful for fifty years in the treatment of affections of the skin and hair and is today without doubt one of the most popular soaps ever produced for the toilet, bath and nursery.
Soap 25c. Ointment 25c. and 50c. Tubes 25c. Sample each free.
Address: "Cuticura," Dept. 17D, Malden, Massachusetts.
"Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c."

See Our Charming Autumn

DRESSES

They Cleverly Show Forth All the Latest Popular Fashion Trends

THEY OFFER AMERICA'S GREATEST DRESS VALUE AT

$15

Fresh and new—alive with the true spirit of Autumn Chic! These dresses are nothing short of marvels at this meagre sum! Crepes, Satins, Georges, trimmed with Velvet or Satin! Styles that dazzle in their charming originality—their indescribable smartness! In all the colors that Autumn decrees—the gorgeous Browns, Navy, Black! You will find YOUR Frocks!

Over 100 Styles to Select From!

HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

NEW AS-YOU-LIKE-IT HOSE

To further glorify the Autumn Mode, comes a new shipment of exquisite As-You-Like-It hose in shades completely suited to every Fall costume! Pointed heels lend added grace! Splendid service weight. Sizes 8 to 10.

$1.65

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

35c Rayon Dress Shields
Rayon dress shields of the greatest daintiness and lightness! All of the pastel shades. Special at 24c

500 Prs. 25c Rubber BABY PANTS
2 Prs. for 25c

75c and $1 Scissors and Shears
3 1/2 to 8-Inch sizes, solid steel scissors and shears. Reduced to 49c

4-Piece Desk Sets
Attractive desk sets, composed of desk pad, paper weight, pen holder and letter opener. Special at $1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Silks and Velvets

For Your Autumn Sewing

Now is the time for Fall needles to get busy! And what gorgeous materials they will sew! This entire week we will offer special values each day on our new Silks and Velvets!

Transparent Velvets $7.95 to $12.50
Plain and printed Transparent Velvets in the newest, loveliest shades. 36 and 40 inches wide. Low prices!

Chiffon Velvet $3.95 and $5.95
Silk faced and all-silk Chiffon Velvets in the rich Autumn shades of Browns, Reds, Blues, Cashmere and Black.

40-In. Black Frost Crepe $2.95 Yd.
This material is a remarkable buy at this moderate price! Only a very special purchase enables us to sell it at $2.95.

12-Momme Imported Pongee 55c Yd.
12-Momme imported Japanese Pongee in the natural pongee shade, 32-inch width. Very special at 55c!

40-Inch ribbon edged Flat Crepe in a complete range of the newest street and evening shades. Lowest possible price!

12-Momme Black Charmeuse $1.49 Yd.
Beautifully lustrous Black Charmeuse of an exceptionally fine quality, 40-Inches wide. In the best vogue for new Fall frocks!

Top of the Morning!

J.M. HIGH CO.

45 Years of Faithful Service and Value-giving

New and Beautiful
HOTEL MCCORMICK
S.W. CORNER RUSH & ONTARIO STS.
CHICAGO
Decidedly smart in atmosphere and location... 8 minutes from the Loop... just off Michigan Blvd... cooled by hot water... offering every comfort and refinement of modern life... unbelievably moderate in price.

RATES
Single Rooms, $2.50 up
Double Rooms, $4.00 up
Kitchensettes, $9.00 a month (All with Bath)

LAST EXCURSION
—TO—
Montgomery, Mobile, Pensacola, New Orleans
—AND—
Mississippi Gulf Coast Resorts
Saturday, Sept. 1st

Mobile, Ala.	8 Days 9 Days	10 Days 11 Days
Pensacola, Fla.	8.00	10.00
Pensacola, Miss.	10.00	15.00
Ocean Springs, Miss.	10.75	15.00
Ridley, Miss.	10.75	15.00
Gulfport, Miss.	11.50	15.00
Past Christian, Miss.	12.00	15.00
Ray St. Louis, Miss.	12.25	15.00
New Orleans, La.	12.50	15.00

Make sleeping car reservations now. Phone WA. 2726 or MA. 6800.

Montgomery, Ala., $3.00
Limited 3 Days
Trains leaving Atlanta 7:15 A. M. and 4:30 P. M., Saturday, Sept. 1.

Columbus, Ga., $3.00
Limited 3 Days
Trains leaving Atlanta 7:15 A. M. and 4:30 P. M., Saturday, Sept. 1.

THE WEST POINT ROUTE

Diamond-Ruby-Platinum Rings
Fancy rings are decidedly smart... the combination of diamonds and rubies one of most pleasing and in perfect harmony with fashion's choice of red in its various shades for the Autumn season.
A lovely platinum ring is set with very fine ruby center stone with 2 Baguette diamonds on either side and outlined in small diamonds. $1,100.00.
See our interesting display of diamond-platinum jewelry.

MAIER & BERKELE, Inc.
For forty-one years the leading jewelers of the South.
111 Peachtree Street Established 1887

MISSING FAMILY AROUSES ANXIETY

Thomasville, Ga., August 27.—The mystery of the disappearance from Thomasville July 21 of Captain A. H. Harrington, his wife and daughter, becomes more involved as the details are elaborated. Andrew B. Clark, father of Mrs. Harrington, stated today that if his daughter is alive and free to act he is certain she believes her family have been advised of her whereabouts.

The Harringtons went on a trip west last year, and were absent from Thomasville about six months, and Mrs. Harrington never allowed more than 10 days or two weeks to pass without writing her family here.

Captain Harrington has been doing well in his plant business, Mr. Clark says, and had all arrangements made to put up a handsome green house and extend the scope of this business, and leaving here stated he would not be absent but a week or 10 days at the outside. He took no more money with him than one might usually have on a short automobile trip, Mr. Clark said.

The Harringtons left Thomasville in their car shortly after noon on a Saturday, expecting to spend the night at the home of a friend, Mrs. Edgar Stewart, in Madison, Fla., only 50 miles from here on the Seaside highway. Mrs. Stewart has advised that they never came to her home.

CONGRESSMAN COX TO DELIVER SPEECH IN SMITH BEHALF

Bainbridge, Ga., August 27.—Congressman E. E. Cox, of Camilla, will speak at the court house Wednesday night for the democrats of DeKalb county who are planning a campaign through teamwork in behalf of Al Smith for president and who will organize a Smith club at that time.

Judge John R. Wilson has been acting as temporary chairman. Extensive advertising has been made for a big meeting, according to reports.

EXCHANGE CLUB HEARS JUDGE POWELL TODAY

Judge Arthur G. Powell, former member of the Georgia court of appeals, will address the regular meeting of the Exchange club at 12:30 o'clock today, in the Henry Grady hotel. Judge Powell's talk will have reference to the political situation. Special entertainment has been provided, including a musical program by Mrs. Eunice Curry Prescott, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. Clyde Withers.

Earl Hudson And DePratt Clash Here

Top Free Boxing Card To Be Staged Wednesday Night by Chevrolet Motor Co.

A great boxing card, and admission free!

Verily the boxing fan's dream of getting to see a good evening's sport without having to dig down in his trusty jeans for the necessary coin of the realm has at last come true.

All of which when translated means that Wednesday night, some 36 hours after these lines are read, one of the best boxing cards that has adorned an Atlanta ring for some time will be put on at the auditorium under the direction of the Chevrolet Motor company in honor of its visiting guests, the 72-car club members gathered here in annual session. Your money is not worth a plugged nickle toward getting you through the door, but you must have a pass from a Chevrolet dealer. These are extremely easy to obtain.

Eddie Hanlon, the commander in chief of the evening's battles, has arranged a card that speaks volumes of praise for his ability as a promoter. The feature event on the card will be the windup between Earl Hudson, of Miami, and Gunner DePratt, a well-known southern fighter. This bout promises to be charged with excitement and thrills from the opening gong. This bout will be over the six-round distance, the promoter believing that the boys will step faster and put

An old-fashioned battle royal, in which a half dozen of the leading dusky battlers of the city will engage, opens the card. Then follows fights between Remember, the place is the auditorium, the time is Wednesday night.

Results

SOUTHERN LEAGUE.
ATLANTA, 1-4; New Orleans, 7-3.
Little Rock, 2; Nashville, 3.
Mobile, 4; Birmingham, 5.
(Only games scheduled.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE
St. Louis 8-4; Boston 6-0.
Detroit 3-2; New York 4-5.
Cleveland 5; Washington 3.
Chicago at Philadelphia, rain.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.
St. Louis 11; Chicago 3.
Pittsburgh 9; Cincinnati 4.
(Only two games scheduled.)

SOUTHEASTERN LEAGUE.
Columbus, 4; Tampa, 2.

Pensacola, 2; Montgomery, 7.
Selma at Jacksonville, wet grounds.

GEORGIA-ALABAMA.

Talladega 2; Carrollton 6.
Anniston 9; Cedartown 4.
Gadsden 1; Lindale 5.

PIEDMONT LEAGUE.
Salisbury, 0-1; Greensboro, 6-8.
Raleigh, 4; Winston-Salem, 11.
High Point, 9-8; Durham, 3-4.

SALLY LEAGUE.
Knoxville, 5; Spartanburg, 1.

Asheville, 11; Greenville, 3.
Columbia, 5; Charlotte, 4 (11 innings).
Macon, 11; Augusta, 2 (7 innings, dark)

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.
Baltimore 3; Buffalo 6.
Jersey City 4; Montreal 5.

Newark 1; Rochester 2.
Reading 3; Toronto 2.

EASTERN CAROLINA LEAGUE.
Greenville 5; Kinston 6.
Fayetteville 3; Rocky Mount 5.
Wilmington 6; Goldsboro 1.

EASTERN LEAGUE.
Hartford 4; Bridgeport 1.
Providence 5-4; Pittsfield 3-9.
New Haven 3-8; Albany 2-1. (First game 17 innings.)
Springfield 2-3; Waterbury 1-2.

THREE-EYE LEAGUE.
Peoria 3; Quincy 1.
Terre Haute 3; Bloomington 6.
Danville 3; Evansville 2.
Springfield 7; Decatur 4.

WESTERN LEAGUE.

Denver 10; Pueblo 3.
(Only game scheduled.)

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE.
Open date.

TEXAS LEAGUE.
San Antonio 7; Beaumont 6.

Wichita Falls 2; Shreveport 1. (13 innings.)
Houston 14; Waco 4.
Fort Worth 7; Dallas 6. (13 innings).

WESTERN ASSOCIATION.
Fort Smith, 10; Springfield, 7.

Muskogee, 0; Independence, 7.
(Only games scheduled.)

COTTON STATES LEAGUE.
Jackson, 4; Monroe, 7.
Alexandria, 2; Vicksburg, 2 (11 innings, tie.)
Laurel, 4; Hattiesburg, 5.

Today's Games

SOUTHERN LEAGUE.
ATLANTA at New Orleans.
Birmingham at Mobile.
Chattanooga at Memphis.
Little Rock at Nashville.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.
St. Louis at Boston.
Cleveland at Detroit.
Chicago at Philadelphia.
(Only three games scheduled.)

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

St. Louis at Chicago.
Boston at New York.
Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.
(Only three games scheduled).

SALLY LEAGUE.
Macon at Augusta.

Charlotte at Columbia.
Asheville at Greenville.
Knoxville at Spartanburg.

SOUTHEASTERN LEAGUE.
Columbus at Tampa.
Selma at Jacksonville.

Pensacola at Montgomery.

GEORGIA-ALABAMA LEAGUE.

Gadsden at Lindale.
Anniston at Cedartown.
Talladega at Carrollton.

Gibson To Pilot Hanson in Ring

New York, August 27.—(P)—Billy Gibson, retired manager of the retired heavyweight champion, Gene Tunney, returned to the "fight racket"

In the future Gibson will manage Knute Hansen. Tex Rickard announced at Madison Square Garden, Rickard said that Gibson, who quit the fight game when Tunney announced his retirement, paid $11,250 for Hansen's contract.

Iron Duke Burns Up Course in Practice for Walker Cup Competition.

ker cup matches will be played Thursday and Friday, evidently was made to order for Bobby Jones as he shot two more remarkable rounds of 67 and 68 during practice towithin two inches of getting an angle on the seventeenth. His drive was unpleasantly and uncharacteristically short, stopped just two inches from the pin and he had to be content with a birdie there. Jones' record-breaking card:

[illegible]

Par out	543	544	494	—36
Par in	434	434	354	—36
Jones in	244	344	344	—35

Jones in 334 348 433 —31—67

It was a very good thing that the first champion played in Bobbly's morning foursome, had his best round there as he began practice on the long course, 34-37—71, or even par. R. B. Jones, the other member of the British team and the celebrated foursome, played the first nine in 38, but picked up at the twelfth hole. Watts Gynn, another Atlantan, did not play in the foursome, but he had the same foursome after getting a 39 going out.

Several members of the British and

Spencer Crowned 3-Year-Old Champ

David M. Lee, of New York, to the extent of $45,000.

In the first heat Spencer clipped a full second off the track record for three-year-olds, trotting the mile in 2:02.25, as compared to the record of 2:03.0 set by Col. C. C. Wilcox up here four years ago. The second heat was clocked in 2:04.

Both miles were faster than any other previously recorded in the big stake.

The Hambletonian stake for 3-year-old trotters, 2 in 3 heat plan, purse $65,926.35, Spencer, b. c., by Lee Tide-Petrex (Lease)

1	1
2	2
3	3
4	4
5	5
6	6
7	7
8	8
9	9
10	10
11	11
12	12
13	13
14	14
15	15
16	16
17	17
18	18
19	19
20	20
21	21
22	22
23	23
24	24
25	25
26	26
27	27
28	28
29	29
30	30
31	31
32	32
33	33
34	34
35	35
36	36
37	37
38	38
39	39
40	40
41	41
42	42
43	43
44	44
45	45
46	46
47	47
48	48
49	49
50	50
51	51
52	52
53	53
54	54
55	55
56	56
57	57
58	58
59	59
60	60
61	61
62	62
63	63
64	64
65	65
66	66
67	67
68	68
69	69
70	70
71	71
72	72
73	73
74	74
75	75
76	76
77	77
78	78
79	79
80	80
81	81
82	82
83	83
84	84
85	85
86	86
87	87
88	88
89	89
90	90
91	91
92	92
93	93
94	94
95	95
96	96
97	97
98	98
99	99
100	100

Gay Abbe, c. m. (Fleming)

Scotty, b. c. (Whitely)

Gayworthy, b. c. (Stokes)

Oburn, b. c. (Ray)	4	9
Cochran, b. c. (Hodson)	6	3
Wright, b. c. (Hodson)	2	8
Bogdanus, Great, b. c. (Egan) ..	10	10
Time, 2:02; 1:04.
2:08 trot; 3-heat plan; purse $1,000:
Cinema, b. c., by Elwyn-Pedarth ..
.....	3	1
.....	1	2
Christie Mac, b. c. (Ray)	1	3
.....	2	3
Time 2:02; 1:04.
Time 2:01; 2:03; 1:07.
2:07 pace; 3-heat plan; purse $1,000:
Courtney Burton, b. g., by Braden ..
.....	4	1
Princess Iniquity, b. m. (Pain) ..	1	2
Trampane, b. g. (Lacey)	2	3
Costa, b. (Lacey)	3	4
Time, 2:02; 2:03; 1:04.
Claiming race for trotters, per $100, $5 heat plan; purse $1,000.
.....	1	2
.....	2	3
.....	3	4
.....	4	5
.....	5	6
.....	6	7
.....	7	8
.....	8	9
.....	9	10
.....	10	11
.....	11	12
.....	12	13
.....	13	14
.....	14	15
.....	15	16
.....	16	17
.....	17	18
.....	18	19
.....	19	20
.....	20	21
.....	21	22
.....	22	23
.....	23	24
.....	24	25
.....	25	26
.....	26	27
.....	27	28
.....	28	29
.....	29	30
.....	30	31
.....	31	32
.....	32	33
.....	33	34
.....	34	35
.....	35	36
.....	36	37
.....	37	38
.....	38	39
.....	39	40
.....	40	41
.....	41	42
.....	42	43
.....	43	44
.....	44	45
.....	45	46
.....	46	47
.....	47	48
.....	48	49
.....	49	50
.....	50	51
.....	51	52
.....	52	53
.....	53	54
.....	54	55
.....	55	56
.....	56	57
.....	57	58
.....	58	59
.....	59	60
.....	60	61
.....	61	62
.....	62	63
.....	63	64
.....	64	65
.....	65	66
.....	66	67
.....	67	68
.....	68	69
.....	69	70
.....	70	71
.....	71	72
.....	72	73
.....	73	74
.....	74	75
.....	75	76
.....	76	77
.....	77	78
.....	78	79
.....	79	80
.....	80	81
.....	81	82
.....	82	83
.....	83	84
.....	84	85
.....	85	86
.....	86	87
.....	87	88
.....	88	89
.....	89	90
.....	90	91
.....	91	92
.....	92	93
.....	93	94
.....	94	95
.....	95	96
.....	96	97
.....	97	98
.....	98	99
.....	99	100

HOME RUNS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
HOME RUNS YESTERDAY.

Schulte, Browns	1
NATIONAL LEAGUE LEADERS.
Willard, Cardinals	20
Bottomley, Cardinals	20
Husheer, Robins	19
Burrell, Phillies	19
Hafer, Cardinals	19
Hornebush, Pirates	18
AMERICAN LEAGUE LEADERS.
Ruth, Yankees	46
Gehrig, Yankees	22
Hansen, Athletics	22
Simmons, Athletics	18
Hubert, Athletics	18
Fox, Athletics	12
LEAGUE TOTALS.
National	468
American	459
Grand total	889

$3.50 AUGUSTA, GA.,
And return, Saturday, Sept. 1st. Tickets good two days. GEORGIA RAIL.

Washed $1
grit—polish glass surfaces—
y clean the inside of your car.
TIRE CO.
TRALLY) WALNUT 6100 CATED)

College Girls Prepare for Study At Prominent Institutions

The season of shopping, renewed enterprises, and the evidence of plans for young girls' departure for school, are at hand. Machines are producing the most appropriate frocks for the fall wardrobe. Catalogues of colleges continue to offer inducement to the studious maid. And the exodus of Atlanta girls, which will reach its height the middle of September, is even at present making itself felt among the college set.

Returning for her second year at Shorter college in Rome will be Miss Josephine Hardman, daughter of Governor Hardman and Mrs. Hardman, who received her high school training at Commerce, where she formerly made her home. Miss Hardman is one of a long line of students who have almost continuously for the past 15 years represented the family of Governor Hardman at this outstanding Georgia school, winning in each case distinction and honor. Governor Hardman has been for many years vice president of the board of trustees of the institution.

Other Atlanta girls who will attend Shorter college this season include Misses Bernice Cannon, Jane Elizabeth Kinard, Louise Robertson, Helen Roberts, College Park; Martha Bowen, Decatur; Margaret Allen, Vapeville; Cleone Willingham, Eleanor Webb, Louise Carter, Hapeville; Mary Wallace, Lucy Richards, Beth King, Midge King, Grace Jackson, Frances Harrison, College Park; Eugenia Dodd, Mary Lou Hoyt, Lucile Breitenbacher, Lavinia Boylston, Catherine Carlton, Kathryn Cooper.

Washington city, with its opportunity for study and cultural advancement, will have its share in molding a score of youthful Atlanta belles. Miss Cornelia Orme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Orme, has chosen Holton Arms as the school which she will attend for the winter. Miss Marion Calhoun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phinizy Calhoun, and Misses Florence and Mary Bryan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Shepard Bryan, will pursue their studies at the National Cathedral school. The Georgetown Visitation convent, near Washington, will claim Miss Constance Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Adams, who leaves September 18 to take up her studies there, and Misses Helen Hill and Laura Payne Smith, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith, will go for the first time there for a year away at school. Miss Anna Blake Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Morrison, former Atlantans who now reside in Orlando, Fla., will join them here.

Miss Virginia Vaughn Nixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Nixon, and Miss Caroline Paulin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Edgar Paulin, leave the latter part of September for Mt. Vernon school. Miss Frances McKenzie, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Speer, will continue her studies throughout the winter at a convent near Washington. Misses Julia Meador, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Meador, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Spalding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spalding, are registered at the King Smith studios, Washington.

An Atlanta girl who will go further perhaps than any other is Miss Rachael Neely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neely, who during the past winter at Smith college won the honor of representing the college, with forty other classmates, at the Sarbonne university, Paris, where she will pursue the study of French. Miss Neely is a Girls' High school graduate, of whom students and faculty are justly proud.

Among the Atlanta girls who will attend Randolph-Woman's college, Lynchburg, Va., are Misses Frances Spalding, who returns for her senior year; Miss Sally Spalding, a freshman, who will join her sister there the middle of September following a delightful tour of Europe with a congenial party which included her younger sister, Elizabeth, a student at Girls' High school. Miss Anna Ehrbridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ehrbridge, leaves for her senior year at the college.

Sweet Briar college is one of the popular Virginia institutions which this year will claim a number of Atlanta girls. Among those who will probably continue their course of study here are Misses Sarah De Saussure, Teresa Atkinson, Sarah Meador, Sarah Law, Sophie Street and Margaret Mahoney. Miss Jane Dillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Dillon, returns this fall to the University of Illinois. Misses Frances Barnett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Barnett, and Boyce Loker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Loker, leave the city October 1 to study at the Metropolitan museum, in New York city. Miss Gardner Gunby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gunby, has also chosen New York city in which to study during the winter, returning to Spence's where she was a popular student during the past winter.

Miss Sally Pearson, daughter of Major and Mrs. William F. Pearson, returns to Rosemary hall, in Connecticut, after an extended trip abroad.

Miss Charlotte Price Is Honor Guest.

Miss Charlotte Price, of New Orleans, the guest of Mrs. Anderson Redding, is being honored at a number of parties. Mrs. Horace Collingsworth entertained at a theater party complimenting Miss Price. Later in the afternoon, Miss Theodosia Beckham honored Mrs. Redding and her guest at bridge.

Mrs. W. M. Graham Honors Daughter.

Mrs. William M. Graham entertained at a children's party Monday afternoon at her home on Clairmont avenue, in Decatur, in honor of her daughter, Margaret, in celebration of her first birthday. Mrs. Charles Crouch and Mrs. Grady Poole assisted in entertaining.

Mrs. Burroughs Celebrates 90th Birthday Anniversary.

Mrs. L. E. Burroughs celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary last Sunday at Davis-Fischer sanitarium, where she has made her home for the past three years, a group of relatives sharing in the festivities. She is the oldest living member of the First Methodist church, having joined the church in 1865, when the edifice stood on the ground where the Candler building is erected and was called Wesley chapel.

Mrs. Burroughs is the daughter of the late Major George H. Shaw, her father having been a veteran of several wars, and she was one of the first pioneer residents of Atlanta. She watched the city grow from the cross-roads state into the most progressive city of the south, and was active in church work until three years ago when she was stricken ill, and since then has made her home at Davis-Fischer sanitarium. A cake, decorated with 90 pink candles, marked the number of years since her birth and she received many floral tokens on her birthday anniversary.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

The marriage of Miss Mildred Cecelia La Hatt and Osbourne Rogers Haygood will take place at 9:30 o'clock at the immaculate Conception church, to be followed by a wedding breakfast at the Wincoff hotel, given by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. La Hatt and Miss Agnes O'Connor.

Mrs. Walter E. Crew will entertain at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John Sutton, in honor of Miss Dorothy May Moody, bride-elect.

Mrs. Earle Yancey will entertain at a tea from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue in honor of her nieces, Misses Catherine Harris and Virginia Hall, of Cedartown.

Dinner-dance on the roof garden of Capital City club.

Miss Clara Mae Allen, assisted by Mrs. W. G. Bryant and Mrs. M. H. Harbour, will hold a carnival on the lawn of Miss Allen's home, 417 Clairmont avenue, in Decatur, this afternoon, for the benefit of the organ fund of the Baptist church.

Robert E. Lee chapter of College Park sponsors a silver tea from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. M. Hughes, 520 North Main street, College Park.

Miss Esther Garrett will entertain at a bridge-luncheon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Garrett, on Penn avenue, honoring her guest, Miss Catherine Akin, of Cartersville, Ga., and Miss Anne Harrison, of Martinsburg, W. Va., the guest of Miss Eugenia Bridges.

Miss Nancy Downing entertains at luncheon, honoring Miss Florence Wiley, of New Orleans, La.

Tabernacle Peps Give Straw Ride and Picnic.

Members of the Pep class of the Baptist tabernacle Sunday school, accompanied by a few friends, enjoyed a straw ride to "Uncle Tom's" swimming pool in Decatur, Friday evening, including Misses Daisy Payne, Ruth Jackson, Marjorie McDonald, Rose Hart Ruby Stephenson, Mary Connor, Messrs. R. T. Edgeworth, J. V. Roberts, Jack Maddox, Fred Martin, James Stowe, R. G. Cowan, W. Nettles Ferguson and Charles Payne. At Decatur the party was joined by J. C. Vandegriff, who is the president of the Pep class, Mrs. J. C. Vandegriff, Miss Ruth Vandegriff and little Miss Peggy Anne Vandegriff.

Grady Auxiliary Meets Tuesday.

The Grady Hospital auxiliary meets Tuesday, August 28, at 11 o'clock in the assembly room at the hospital. Mrs. Nat Kaiser urges that all officers, church chairmen and members be present as business of importance will be discussed.

Miss Candler Chosen First Honor Camper.

Miss Mary Candler was chosen first honor camper at the close of Camp Dixie for girls, near Clayton. Misses Katherine Lindner, Jeanette Millard, Mabel and Ethel York were awarded the blue triangle; Misses Nancy Jones, Ellen Fleming, Julia Beers, Mary Spalding, Dean, Mary Seabrook Smith and Mabel Talmage received the red triangle; Miss Nell Winslip the red square, and Miss Elizabeth DuBose White the blue disc. Miss Louise Hancock was a member of cabin 10, the honor cabin. Miss Jean Walker received her red triangle a week before the banquet.

Atlanta girls receiving Junior life-saving emblems and buttons were Misses Julia Beers, Frances Beers, Mary Dean and Martha Frisbie. Miss Jeanette Millard has passed the senior life-saving test and received honorable mention at the banquet as she was too young to receive a senior emblem.

Miss Elmer Clark Will Be Honored At Party Series

The marriage of Miss Elmer Talmadge Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Clark, and Frank Browder, Jr., will be quietly solemnized Saturday, September 15, at the home of the bride-elect on Howard street in Kirkwood. A series of parties will honor Miss Clark, the first to be a bridge-ten given by Miss Lilla Dews, Monday, September 3, at her home in Decatur. Miss Evelyn Morse entertains at a linen shower Wednesday, September 5, at her home on Arlington place, and Miss Lucile and Sarah Cassels will be hostesses at a bridge-ten at their home on Howard street, Thursday, September 6.

Miss Mary Lou Sullivan's seated tea takes place Friday, September 7, at the Henry Grady hotel, and Miss Mary Ellen Park gives a tea at her home in West End Sunday afternoon, September 9. Miss Donnan Hale's Home for Friendless Board To Meet.

The executive board of the Home for the Friendless meets Thursday morning, August 30, 1928, at 10:30 o'clock in the home, Mrs. Eugene C. Wachendorf is recording secretary.

Teachers and Officers Meet This Evening.

Teachers and officers of the West End Baptist Sunday school meet Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the Fidelis room. A most entertaining program has been arranged for the evening. Supper will be served by the beginners' department, Mrs. W. C. Roper, leader.

Mrs. Sparlock Honors Mrs. David Arnold.

Mrs. Blue Sparlock was hostess Friday at a bridge-ten at her home on Oakdale road, in compliment to Mrs. David Arnold, of Hampton, the guest of Mrs. Terhune Sudlerth.

TUESDAY FASHION DAY at RICH'S

What Smart Windows Will Wear This Winter

—Just as in apparel—the decorative mode is becoming more individual . . . Rooms have personalities . . . and the color, the texture, the treatment of your curtains and draperies must suit the type of room. . . . There are no rules whether draperies be long or short . . . nor concerning the color . . . the exact fullness nor the matter of valance. . . . But there is of course a certain etiquette of draperies. . . . There is a certain type of fabric that is in good taste for each type of room. . . .

Our Decorator Will Be Glad To Help With Your Draperies Consult Her Freely

The LIVING and DINING ROOMS

Are Formal in Deep, Rich Colors

—Today, informality is the keynote of the average home . . . but the living room and dining room should, for the season of winter entertaining, be the most formal spots in the home . . . using heavy damasks, brocades threaded in gold . . . rich, wine reds, old blues, antiqued greens . . . of Spain and Italy . . . heavy blocked linens quite reminiscent of the crewel embroidery of Early England. . . .

Damasks are $2.79 to $4.50

Blocked Linens are $1.75 to $3.75

The BED ROOM

Is Gay in Amusing Prints

—Whether your bedroom is quaintly Early American with delightful maple things . . . or Colonial with shining mahogany . . . or Provincial in beechwood . . . or French in the manner of the Louis in painted wood . . . is all a matter of your own personality . . . But each will be smart if you use printed draperies . . . flowered chintz . . . cretonne . . . Toile de Jouy. . . .

Chintzes are 85c to $1.35 Toile de Jouy is $1.25

The SUNROOM

Is Daringly Modern in Design!

—The sunroom must remain the most colorful, the most gay, the most informal room in the home . . . a spot that brings to you in winter the joyousness of spring out-of-doors! It is here that the Modernistic cretonnes and linens are smartest . . . with their plane-and-angle designs . . . and their daring colors. . . .

Cretonnes 39c to $1.75

—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

M. RICH & BROS. CO

Rich's Suggests Shoes for the School Girl's Wardrobe

—polo kid and lizard

Asbury $10

Queen Quality's smartest mode of the season! Developed in Polo Kid—a blonde tone—with blending inserts of lizard. Also in brown kid with blending lizard.

—tan kid and greige suede

Chaussonette $12.50

Short, chubby little vamp and high, dashing little heel! It's Chaussonette! This youngest of the young oxford may be had in tan kid with a quarter of greige suede.

In Plantation Kid Greige Quarter . . . $12.50
In Black Patent—Black Ooze Quarter . . . $12.50
In Serge Blue Kid—Blue Ooze Quarter . . . $13.50

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

M. RICH & BROS. CO

Last 4 Days!
RICH'S
Furniture
and SALE

The Taming of Elizabeth

By WINIFRED BOGGS

INSTALLMENT I. Trapped.

At breakfast with delicious bubbling coffee, the smell of country bacon, the sun shining, the gay pattern on the walls of the morning room, Elizabeth would be ashamed of her wild night fancies. There were two people; one which reacted to sunshine and the day, the other to darkness and the night. She always felt so different first thing; in spite of poor nights and too little sleep, she never felt as exhausted and drained in the morning. It was always at the close of the long day that the worst exhaustion came over her. Yet what was there during the day to so drain her of vitality? How could she have an easier, lazier time?

She would look through the iron gates bordered on each side by the dreary marshes, down the long empty road so like eternity, a thing that went on and on into nothingness. "Twelve miles to the station," she would mutter to herself, and, however tired, she would feel she could walk that—if only the chance might have been hers!

Was it a straight road? She could not remember. Suppose she managed to get out and started to get to the station and never got there? Suppose Brown overtook her and brought her back? It would not be easy to face Mrs. Vestington; that queer look that made her shudder would leap to her eyes. She would not take notice in the usual way; dismissed the idea as absurd.

"Yet, I've got to get out," she told herself again and again. It was only first thing that she felt vital enough to think of ways and means; at the end of the day she was almost too exhausted to think at all. Then came the night and her effort to remember that it was only a bough tapping upon the window, not agonized dead fingers, and that the bar was still turned from her.

"Silly little ass! How Stephen would laugh at you!" It would be worse than just having Stephen laughing at her, because he would laugh at her with his widow; there would be triumph and mockery and contempt in the laughter of the woman.

She took up Miss Smiley's letter, affected to be intent on it. "I want to go," she said, "I must go. This place makes me . . . funny somehow. Please do not try to stop me going any more."

"Elizabeth! You cannot be like those others, so heartless and selfish and absurd. Taking everything, giving nothing, battering on me," her voice rose shrilly. "Yes, it is just that. In the end I have to send them away and I feel like a squeezed orange. It is not fair. You young things won't give us old things a chance." She burst into tears, half of rage, half of dismay. "How am I to live without anyone to take an interest, to cheer me up?"

"But there will always be so many children to have such a host, not silly little fools like me, sensible, older—"

"I hate them older. I won't have them older!" screamed the old woman. "I tell you they do me no good, only harm. I must, I will have youth, vitality, gaiety. It would kill me to let you go. I am so fond of you—"

Elizabeth looked at the clutching hands. They would never let her go. They had fastened on her, into her, the pretty pink face, but under it the resolution of iron! She would not let her go.

"I am trapped," she thought wildly. There is nobody now, Stephen does not care. I can't run away any more than those birds can run away. I am shut up in the cage. . . I shall die as they do. When they open the gates for me it will be to let my dead body through as they had to open them in the end for her.

She would write to Stephen again, a desperate appeal. . .

Then suddenly suspicion gripped her. Would Stephen get her letter? Would she get any letter from Stephen? Mrs. Vestington did not often make a mistake, but that slip about

Mrs. White told its own story. She read all the letters, kept them back, destroyed them as it suited her. At the lodge Blossom watched to see there were no signals with the outer world.

She rose from her chair. "You can't keep me against my will," she cried. "I don't believe you are kind after all. I believe you are wicked and dreadful . . . and you read my letters and stopped them. O, you devil, you devil! I hate you. . . and I am going to escape!"

Mrs. Vestington sat back in her seat, her face drained of all color, her eyes like steel. Then she rose and rang the bell. "Miss Darcy is hysterical," she said sharply to Stevens, "help me to get her to her own room."

The iron strength of those two old people . . . she was thrust into her room and the doors locked. "You will be yourself by lunch time, Elizabeth," said Mrs. Vestington. "I will come for you then and we will forget all this."

Elizabeth made no answer. She told herself she must keep her head. That she was in any actual physical danger her common sense told her she was not. The danger lay in how far her exhausted vitality could stand the strain, and what would happen if it crashed utterly. Would she go mad or die, or just be ill for a very long time and never the same again? The longer she stayed the less fight there would be left in her. She must husband all her strength, use up none of it uselessly. She must be cunning, affect cheerfulness, resignation, and watch the moment when an attempt at escape would be possible.

How easy in books of crime and adventure. One simply doped one's enemies or shot them. She sighed enviously. How she would love to shoot Blossom and sweet, kind Mrs. Vestington. "I don't believe it would really be a crime," she thought. "Mrs. Vestington would get me off with pleasure." He would, in fact, be obliged to her, for he hated his aunt and once she was shot he would have all her money. But things were never quite as simple as they seemed; there was usually a snag somewhere. "A rope, not a live veil around my throat," she thought. No, better not shoot, quite apart from the fact she possessed nothing she would care to shoot with.

At luncheon she was so gay that Mrs. Vestington regarded her with an odd smile. "It was for your own sake, Elizabeth," she said. "You know, one must be stern with hysterical girls, it's their only chance. We will go round the grounds after lunch."

After tea they sat on the terrace with a book full of sentiment, passionate embraces, and a hero whose manners were so atrocious, it was no wonder the heroine loved him to distraction. It was the type of fiction dear to both of them, but for once it failed of its appeal. They were thinking of very different things.

"There must be map somewhere," thought Elizabeth. "then I could see the plan of the road, and how to get to the station."

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

JIMMY JAMS

WAIT A MINUTE, POP, WHILE I READ THIS SUNDAY FUNNY SHEET I FOUND

"I am trapped," she thought wildly. There is nobody now, Stephen does not care. I can't run away any more than those birds can run away. I am shut up in the cage. . . I shall die as they do. When they open the gates for me it will be to let my dead body through as they had to open them in the end for her.

She would write to Stephen again, a desperate appeal. . .

Then suddenly suspicion gripped her. Would Stephen get her letter? Would she get any letter from Stephen? Mrs. Vestington did not often make a mistake, but that slip about

Mrs. White told its own story. She read all the letters, kept them back, destroyed them as it suited her. At the lodge Blossom watched to see there were no signals with the outer world.

She rose from her chair. "You can't keep me against my will," she cried. "I don't believe you are kind after all. I believe you are wicked and dreadful . . . and you read my letters and stopped them. O, you devil, you devil! I hate you. . . and I am going to escape!"

Mrs. Vestington sat back in her seat, her face drained of all color, her eyes like steel. Then she rose and rang the bell. "Miss Darcy is hysterical," she said sharply to Stevens, "help me to get her to her own room."

The iron strength of those two old people . . . she was thrust into her room and the doors locked. "You will be yourself by lunch time, Elizabeth," said Mrs. Vestington. "I will come for you then and we will forget all this."

Elizabeth made no answer. She told herself she must keep her head. That she was in any actual physical danger her common sense told her she was not. The danger lay in how far her exhausted vitality could stand the strain, and what would happen if it crashed utterly. Would she go mad or die, or just be ill for a very long time and never the same again? The longer she stayed the less fight there would be left in her. She must husband all her strength, use up none of it uselessly. She must be cunning, affect cheerfulness, resignation, and watch the moment when an attempt at escape would be possible.

How easy in books of crime and adventure. One simply doped one's enemies or shot them. She sighed enviously. How she would love to shoot Blossom and sweet, kind Mrs. Vestington. "I don't believe it would really be a crime," she thought. "Mrs. Vestington would get me off with pleasure." He would, in fact, be obliged to her, for he hated his aunt and once she was shot he would have all her money. But things were never quite as simple as they seemed; there was usually a snag somewhere. "A rope, not a live veil around my throat," she thought. No, better not shoot, quite apart from the fact she possessed nothing she would care to shoot with.

At luncheon she was so gay that Mrs. Vestington regarded her with an odd smile. "It was for your own sake, Elizabeth," she said. "You know, one must be stern with hysterical girls, it's their only chance. We will go round the grounds after lunch."

After tea they sat on the terrace with a book full of sentiment, passionate embraces, and a hero whose manners were so atrocious, it was no wonder the heroine loved him to distraction. It was the type of fiction dear to both of them, but for once it failed of its appeal. They were thinking of very different things.

"There must be map somewhere," thought Elizabeth. "then I could see the plan of the road, and how to get to the station."

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

"I hate them older. I won't have them older!" screamed the old woman. "I tell you they do me no good, only harm. I must, I will have youth, vitality, gaiety. It would kill me to let you go. I am so fond of you—"

Elizabeth looked at the clutching hands. They would never let her go. They had fastened on her, into her, the pretty pink face, but under it the resolution of iron! She would not let her go.

"I am trapped," she thought wildly. There is nobody now, Stephen does not care. I can't run away any more than those birds can run away. I am shut up in the cage. . . I shall die as they do. When they open the gates for me it will be to let my dead body through as they had to open them in the end for her.

She would write to Stephen again, a desperate appeal. . .

Then suddenly suspicion gripped her. Would Stephen get her letter? Would she get any letter from Stephen? Mrs. Vestington did not often make a mistake, but that slip about

Mrs. White told its own story. She read all the letters, kept them back, destroyed them as it suited her. At the lodge Blossom watched to see there were no signals with the outer world.

She rose from her chair. "You can't keep me against my will," she cried. "I don't believe you are kind after all. I believe you are wicked and dreadful . . . and you read my letters and stopped them. O, you devil, you devil! I hate you. . . and I am going to escape!"

Mrs. Vestington sat back in her seat, her face drained of all color, her eyes like steel. Then she rose and rang the bell. "Miss Darcy is hysterical," she said sharply to Stevens, "help me to get her to her own room."

The iron strength of those two old people . . . she was thrust into her room and the doors locked. "You will be yourself by lunch time, Elizabeth," said Mrs. Vestington. "I will come for you then and we will forget all this."

Elizabeth made no answer. She told herself she must keep her head. That she was in any actual physical danger her common sense told her she was not. The danger lay in how far her exhausted vitality could stand the strain, and what would happen if it crashed utterly. Would she go mad or die, or just be ill for a very long time and never the same again? The longer she stayed the less fight there would be left in her. She must husband all her strength, use up none of it uselessly. She must be cunning, affect cheerfulness, resignation, and watch the moment when an attempt at escape would be possible.

How easy in books of crime and adventure. One simply doped one's enemies or shot them. She sighed enviously. How she would love to shoot Blossom and sweet, kind Mrs. Vestington. "I don't believe it would really be a crime," she thought. "Mrs. Vestington would get me off with pleasure." He would, in fact, be obliged to her, for he hated his aunt and once she was shot he would have all her money. But things were never quite as simple as they seemed; there was usually a snag somewhere. "A rope, not a live veil around my throat," she thought. No, better not shoot, quite apart from the fact she possessed nothing she would care to shoot with.

At luncheon she was so gay that Mrs. Vestington regarded her with an odd smile. "It was for your own sake, Elizabeth," she said. "You know, one must be stern with hysterical girls, it's their only chance. We will go round the grounds after lunch."

After tea they sat on the terrace with a book full of sentiment, passionate embraces, and a hero whose manners were so atrocious, it was no wonder the heroine loved him to distraction. It was the type of fiction dear to both of them, but for once it failed of its appeal. They were thinking of very different things.

"There must be map somewhere," thought Elizabeth. "then I could see the plan of the road, and how to get to the station."

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

"I hate them older. I won't have them older!" screamed the old woman. "I tell you they do me no good, only harm. I must, I will have youth, vitality, gaiety. It would kill me to let you go. I am so fond of you—"

Elizabeth looked at the clutching hands. They would never let her go. They had fastened on her, into her, the pretty pink face, but under it the resolution of iron! She would not let her go.

"I am trapped," she thought wildly. There is nobody now, Stephen does not care. I can't run away any more than those birds can run away. I am shut up in the cage. . . I shall die as they do. When they open the gates for me it will be to let my dead body through as they had to open them in the end for her.

She would write to Stephen again, a desperate appeal. . .

Then suddenly suspicion gripped her. Would Stephen get her letter? Would she get any letter from Stephen? Mrs. Vestington did not often make a mistake, but that slip about

Mrs. White told its own story. She read all the letters, kept them back, destroyed them as it suited her. At the lodge Blossom watched to see there were no signals with the outer world.

She rose from her chair. "You can't keep me against my will," she cried. "I don't believe you are kind after all. I believe you are wicked and dreadful . . . and you read my letters and stopped them. O, you devil, you devil! I hate you. . . and I am going to escape!"

Mrs. Vestington sat back in her seat, her face drained of all color, her eyes like steel. Then she rose and rang the bell. "Miss Darcy is hysterical," she said sharply to Stevens, "help me to get her to her own room."

The iron strength of those two old people . . . she was thrust into her room and the doors locked. "You will be yourself by lunch time, Elizabeth," said Mrs. Vestington. "I will come for you then and we will forget all this."

Elizabeth made no answer. She told herself she must keep her head. That she was in any actual physical danger her common sense told her she was not. The danger lay in how far her exhausted vitality could stand the strain, and what would happen if it crashed utterly. Would she go mad or die, or just be ill for a very long time and never the same again? The longer she stayed the less fight there would be left in her. She must husband all her strength, use up none of it uselessly. She must be cunning, affect cheerfulness, resignation, and watch the moment when an attempt at escape would be possible.

How easy in books of crime and adventure. One simply doped one's enemies or shot them. She sighed enviously. How she would love to shoot Blossom and sweet, kind Mrs. Vestington. "I don't believe it would really be a crime," she thought. "Mrs. Vestington would get me off with pleasure." He would, in fact, be obliged to her, for he hated his aunt and once she was shot he would have all her money. But things were never quite as simple as they seemed; there was usually a snag somewhere. "A rope, not a live veil around my throat," she thought. No, better not shoot, quite apart from the fact she possessed nothing she would care to shoot with.

At luncheon she was so gay that Mrs. Vestington regarded her with an odd smile. "It was for your own sake, Elizabeth," she said. "You know, one must be stern with hysterical girls, it's their only chance. We will go round the grounds after lunch."

After tea they sat on the terrace with a book full of sentiment, passionate embraces, and a hero whose manners were so atrocious, it was no wonder the heroine loved him to distraction. It was the type of fiction dear to both of them, but for once it failed of its appeal. They were thinking of very different things.

"There must be map somewhere," thought Elizabeth. "then I could see the plan of the road, and how to get to the station."

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

"I hate them older. I won't have them older!" screamed the old woman. "I tell you they do me no good, only harm. I must, I will have youth, vitality, gaiety. It would kill me to let you go. I am so fond of you—"

Elizabeth looked at the clutching hands. They would never let her go. They had fastened on her, into her, the pretty pink face, but under it the resolution of iron! She would not let her go.

"I am trapped," she thought wildly. There is nobody now, Stephen does not care. I can't run away any more than those birds can run away. I am shut up in the cage. . . I shall die as they do. When they open the gates for me it will be to let my dead body through as they had to open them in the end for her.

She would write to Stephen again, a desperate appeal. . .

Then suddenly suspicion gripped her. Would Stephen get her letter? Would she get any letter from Stephen? Mrs. Vestington did not often make a mistake, but that slip about

Mrs. White told its own story. She read all the letters, kept them back, destroyed them as it suited her. At the lodge Blossom watched to see there were no signals with the outer world.

She rose from her chair. "You can't keep me against my will," she cried. "I don't believe you are kind after all. I believe you are wicked and dreadful . . . and you read my letters and stopped them. O, you devil, you devil! I hate you. . . and I am going to escape!"

Mrs. Vestington sat back in her seat, her face drained of all color, her eyes like steel. Then she rose and rang the bell. "Miss Darcy is hysterical," she said sharply to Stevens, "help me to get her to her own room."

The iron strength of those two old people . . . she was thrust into her room and the doors locked. "You will be yourself by lunch time, Elizabeth," said Mrs. Vestington. "I will come for you then and we will forget all this."

Elizabeth made no answer. She told herself she must keep her head. That she was in any actual physical danger her common sense told her she was not. The danger lay in how far her exhausted vitality could stand the strain, and what would happen if it crashed utterly. Would she go mad or die, or just be ill for a very long time and never the same again? The longer she stayed the less fight there would be left in her. She must husband all her strength, use up none of it uselessly. She must be cunning, affect cheerfulness, resignation, and watch the moment when an attempt at escape would be possible.

How easy in books of crime and adventure. One simply doped one's enemies or shot them. She sighed enviously. How she would love to shoot Blossom and sweet, kind Mrs. Vestington. "I don't believe it would really be a crime," she thought. "Mrs. Vestington would get me off with pleasure." He would, in fact, be obliged to her, for he hated his aunt and once she was shot he would have all her money. But things were never quite as simple as they seemed; there was usually a snag somewhere. "A rope, not a live veil around my throat," she thought. No, better not shoot, quite apart from the fact she possessed nothing she would care to shoot with.

At luncheon she was so gay that Mrs. Vestington regarded her with an odd smile. "It was for your own sake, Elizabeth," she said. "You know, one must be stern with hysterical girls, it's their only chance. We will go round the grounds after lunch."

After tea they sat on the terrace with a book full of sentiment, passionate embraces, and a hero whose manners were so atrocious, it was no wonder the heroine loved him to distraction. It was the type of fiction dear to both of them, but for once it failed of its appeal. They were thinking of very different things.

"There must be map somewhere," thought Elizabeth. "then I could see the plan of the road, and how to get to the station."

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

"I hate them older. I won't have them older!" screamed the old woman. "I tell you they do me no good, only harm. I must, I will have youth, vitality, gaiety. It would kill me to let you go. I am so fond of you—"

Elizabeth looked at the clutching hands. They would never let her go. They had fastened on her, into her, the pretty pink face, but under it the resolution of iron! She would not let her go.

"I am trapped," she thought wildly. There is nobody now, Stephen does not care. I can't run away any more than those birds can run away. I am shut up in the cage. . . I shall die as they do. When they open the gates for me it will be to let my dead body through as they had to open them in the end for her.

She would write to Stephen again, a desperate appeal. . .

Then suddenly suspicion gripped her. Would Stephen get her letter? Would she get any letter from Stephen? Mrs. Vestington did not often make a mistake, but that slip about

Mrs. White told its own story. She read all the letters, kept them back, destroyed them as it suited her. At the lodge Blossom watched to see there were no signals with the outer world.

She rose from her chair. "You can't keep me against my will," she cried. "I don't believe you are kind after all. I believe you are wicked and dreadful . . . and you read my letters and stopped them. O, you devil, you devil! I hate you. . . and I am going to escape!"

Mrs. Vestington sat back in her seat, her face drained of all color, her eyes like steel. Then she rose and rang the bell. "Miss Darcy is hysterical," she said sharply to Stevens, "help me to get her to her own room."

The iron strength of those two old people . . . she was thrust into her room and the doors locked. "You will be yourself by lunch time, Elizabeth," said Mrs. Vestington. "I will come for you then and we will forget all this."

Elizabeth made no answer. She told herself she must keep her head. That she was in any actual physical danger her common sense told her she was not. The danger lay in how far her exhausted vitality could stand the strain, and what would happen if it crashed utterly. Would she go mad or die, or just be ill for a very long time and never the same again? The longer she stayed the less fight there would be left in her. She must husband all her strength, use up none of it uselessly. She must be cunning, affect cheerfulness, resignation, and watch the moment when an attempt at escape would be possible.

How easy in books of crime and adventure. One simply doped one's enemies or shot them. She sighed enviously. How she would love to shoot Blossom and sweet, kind Mrs. Vestington. "I don't believe it would really be a crime," she thought. "Mrs. Vestington would get me off with pleasure." He would, in fact, be obliged to her, for he hated his aunt and once she was shot he would have all her money. But things were never quite as simple as they seemed; there was usually a snag somewhere. "A rope, not a live veil around my throat," she thought. No, better not shoot, quite apart from the fact she possessed nothing she would care to shoot with.

At luncheon she was so gay that Mrs. Vestington regarded her with an odd smile. "It was for your own sake, Elizabeth," she said. "You know, one must be stern with hysterical girls, it's their only chance. We will go round the grounds after lunch."

After tea they sat on the terrace with a book full of sentiment, passionate embraces, and a hero whose manners were so atrocious, it was no wonder the heroine loved him to distraction. It was the type of fiction dear to both of them, but for once it failed of its appeal. They were thinking of very different things.

"There must be map somewhere," thought Elizabeth. "then I could see the plan of the road, and how to get to the station."

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

"I hate them older. I won't have them older!" screamed the old woman. "I tell you they do me no good, only harm. I must, I will have youth, vitality, gaiety. It would kill me to let you go. I am so fond of you—"

Elizabeth looked at the clutching hands. They would never let her go. They had fastened on her, into her, the pretty pink face, but under it the resolution of iron! She would not let her go.

"I am trapped," she thought wildly. There is nobody now, Stephen does not care. I can't run away any more than those birds can run away. I am shut up in the cage. . . I shall die as they do. When they open the gates for me it will be to let my dead body through as they had to open them in the end for her.

She would write to Stephen again, a desperate appeal. . .

Then suddenly suspicion gripped her. Would Stephen get her letter? Would she get any letter from Stephen? Mrs. Vestington did not often make a mistake, but that slip about

Mrs. White told its own story. She read all the letters, kept them back, destroyed them as it suited her. At the lodge Blossom watched to see there were no signals with the outer world.

She rose from her chair. "You can't keep me against my will," she cried. "I don't believe you are kind after all. I believe you are wicked and dreadful . . . and you read my letters and stopped them. O, you devil, you devil! I hate you. . . and I am going to escape!"

Mrs. Vestington sat back in her seat, her face drained of all color, her eyes like steel. Then she rose and rang the bell. "Miss Darcy is hysterical," she said sharply to Stevens, "help me to get her to her own room."

The iron strength of those two old people . . . she was thrust into her room and the doors locked. "You will be yourself by lunch time, Elizabeth," said Mrs. Vestington. "I will come for you then and we will forget all this."

Elizabeth made no answer. She told herself she must keep her head. That she was in any actual physical danger her common sense told her she was not. The danger lay in how far her exhausted vitality could stand the strain, and what would happen if it crashed utterly. Would she go mad or die, or just be ill for a very long time and never the same again? The longer she stayed the less fight there would be left in her. She must husband all her strength, use up none of it uselessly. She must be cunning, affect cheerfulness, resignation, and watch the moment when an attempt at escape would be possible.

How easy in books of crime and adventure. One simply doped one's enemies or shot them. She sighed enviously. How she would love to shoot Blossom and sweet, kind Mrs. Vestington. "I don't believe it would really be a crime," she thought. "Mrs. Vestington would get me off with pleasure." He would, in fact, be obliged to her, for he hated his aunt and once she was shot he would have all her money. But things were never quite as simple as they seemed; there was usually a snag somewhere. "A rope, not a live veil around my throat," she thought. No, better not shoot, quite apart from the fact she possessed nothing she would care to shoot with.

At luncheon she was so gay that Mrs. Vestington regarded her with an odd smile. "It was for your own sake, Elizabeth," she said. "You know, one must be stern with hysterical girls, it's their only chance. We will go round the grounds after lunch."

After tea they sat on the terrace with a book full of sentiment, passionate embraces, and a hero whose manners were so atrocious, it was no wonder the heroine loved him to distraction. It was the type of fiction dear to both of them, but for once it failed of its appeal. They were thinking of very different things.

"There must be map somewhere," thought Elizabeth. "then I could see the plan of the road, and how to get to the station."

(Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.)

(Continued tomorrow.)

"I hate them older. I won't have them older!" screamed the old woman. "I tell you they do me no good, only harm. I must, I will have youth, vitality, gaiety. It would kill me to let you go. I am so fond of you—"

Elizabeth looked at the clutching hands. They would never let her go. They had fastened on her, into her, the pretty pink face, but under it the resolution of iron! She would not let her go.

"I am trapped," she thought wildly. There is nobody now, Stephen does not care. I can't run away any more than those birds can run away. I am shut up in the cage. . . I shall die as they do. When they open the gates for me it will be to let my dead body through as they had to open them in the end for her.

She would write to Stephen again, a desperate appeal. . .

Then suddenly suspicion gripped her. Would Stephen get her letter? Would she get any letter from Stephen? Mrs. Vestington did not often make a mistake, but that slip about

Mrs. White told its own story. She read all the letters, kept them back, destroyed them as it suited her. At the lodge Blossom watched to see there were no signals with the outer world.

She rose from her chair. "You can't keep me against my will," she cried. "I don't believe you are kind after all. I believe you are wicked and dreadful . . . and you read my letters and stopped them. O, you devil, you devil! I hate you. . . and I am going to escape!"

Mrs. Vestington sat back in her seat, her face drained of all color, her eyes like steel. Then she rose and rang the bell. "Miss Darcy is hysterical," she said sharply to Stevens, "help me to get her to her own room."

The iron strength of those two old people . . . she was thrust into her room and the doors locked. "You will be yourself by lunch time, Elizabeth," said Mrs. Vestington. "I will come for you then and we will forget all this."

NEW YORK MARKETS

STOCKS—Inquiry.

BONDS—Dull, heavy.

FOREIGN EXCHANGES—Mixed.

COTTON—Quiet.

SEEKING CHICKEN IN GRANARY

High	Low	Close	Prev.
WHEAT
Sept.	1.11	1.09	1.11
Oct.	1.12	1.10	1.12
Nov.	1.13	1.11	1.13
Dec.	1.14	1.12	1.14
Jan.	1.15	1.13	1.15
Feb.	1.16	1.14	1.16
Mar.	1.17	1.15	1.17
Apr.	1.18	1.16	1.18
May	1.19	1.17	1.19
June	1.20	1.18	1.20
July	1.21	1.19	1.21
Aug.	1.22	1.20	1.22
Sept.	1.23	1.21	1.23
Oct.	1.24	1.22	1.24
Nov.	1.25	1.23	1.25
Dec.	1.26	1.24	1.26
Jan.	1.27	1.25	1.27
Feb.	1.28	1.26	1.28
Mar.	1.29	1.27	1.29
Apr.	1.30	1.28	1.30
May	1.31	1.29	1.31
June	1.32	1.30	1.32
July	1.33	1.31	1.33
Aug.	1.34	1.32	1.34
Sept.	1.35	1.33	1.35
Oct.	1.36	1.34	1.36
Nov.	1.37	1.35	1.37
Dec.	1.38	1.36	1.38
Jan.	1.39	1.37	1.39
Feb.	1.40	1.38	1.40
Mar.	1.41	1.39	1.41
Apr.	1.42	1.40	1.42
May	1.43	1.41	1.43
June	1.44	1.42	1.44
July	1.45	1.43	1.45
Aug.	1.46	1.44	1.46
Sept.	1.47	1.45	1.47
Oct.	1.48	1.46	1.48
Nov.	1.49	1.47	1.49
Dec.	1.50	1.48	1.50
Jan.	1.51	1.49	1.51
Feb.	1.52	1.50	1.52
Mar.	1.53	1.51	1.53
Apr.	1.54	1.52	1.54
May	1.55	1.53	1.55
June	1.56	1.54	1.56
July	1.57	1.55	1.57
Aug.	1.58	1.56	1.58
Sept.	1.59	1.57	1.59
Oct.	1.60	1.58	1.60
Nov.	1.61	1.59	1.61
Dec.	1.62	1.60	1.62
Jan.	1.63	1.61	1.63
Feb.	1.64	1.62	1.64
Mar.	1.65	1.63	1.65
Apr.	1.66	1.64	1.66
May	1.67	1.65	1.67
June	1.68	1.66	1.68
July	1.69	1.67	1.69
Aug.	1.70	1.68	1.70
Sept.	1.71	1.69	1.71
Oct.	1.72	1.70	1.72
Nov.	1.73	1.71	1.73
Dec.	1.74	1.72	1.74
Jan.	1.75	1.73	1.75
Feb.	1.76	1.74	1.76
Mar.	1.77	1.75	1.77
Apr.	1.78	1.76	1.78
May	1.79	1.77	1.79
June	1.80	1.78	1.80
July	1.81	1.79	1.81
Aug.	1.82	1.80	1.82
Sept.	1.83	1.81	1.83
Oct.	1.84	1.82	1.84
Nov.	1.85	1.83	1.85
Dec.	1.86	1.84	1.86
Jan.	1.87	1.85	1.87
Feb.	1.88	1.86	1.88
Mar.	1.89	1.87	1.89
Apr.	1.90	1.88	1.90
May	1.91	1.89	1.91
June	1.92	1.90	1.92
July	1.93	1.91	1.93
Aug.	1.94	1.92	1.94
Sept.	1.95	1.93	1.95
Oct.	1.96	1.94	1.96
Nov.	1.97	1.95	1.97
Dec.	1.98	1.96	1.98
Jan.	1.99	1.97	1.99
Feb.	2.00	1.98	2.00
Mar.	2.01	1.99	2.01
Apr.	2.02	2.00	2.02
May	2.03	2.01	2.03
June	2.04	2.02	2.04
July	2.05	2.03	2.05
Aug.	2.06	2.04	2.06
Sept.	2.07	2.05	2.07
Oct.	2.08	2.06	2.08
Nov.	2.09	2.07	2.09
Dec.	2.10	2.08	2.10
Jan.	2.11	2.09	2.11
Feb.	2.12	2.10	2.12
Mar.	2.13	2.11	2.13
Apr.	2.14	2.12	2.14
May	2.15	2.13	2.15
June	2.16	2.14	2.16
July	2.17	2.15	2.17
Aug.	2.18	2.16	2.18
Sept.	2.19	2.17	2.19
Oct.	2.20	2.18	2.20
Nov.	2.21	2.19	2.21
Dec.	2.22	2.20	2.22
Jan.	2.23	2.21	2.23
Feb.	2.24	2.22	2.24
Mar.	2.25	2.23	2.25
Apr.	2.26	2.24	2.26
May	2.27	2.25	2.27
June	2.28	2.26	2.28
July	2.29	2.27	2.29
Aug.	2.30	2.28	2.30
Sept.	2.31	2.29	2.31
Oct.	2.32	2.30	2.32
Nov.	2.33	2.31	2.33
Dec.	2.34	2.32	2.34
Jan.	2.35	2.33	2.35
Feb.	2.36	2.34	2.36
Mar.	2.37	2.35	2.37
Apr.	2.38	2.36	2.38
May	2.39	2.37	2.39
June	2.40	2.38	2.40
July	2.41	2.39	2.41
Aug.	2.42	2.40	2.42
Sept.	2.43	2.41	2.43
Oct.	2.44	2.42	2.44
Nov.	2.45	2.43	2.45
Dec.	2.46	2.44	2.46
Jan.	2.47	2.45	2.47
Feb.	2.48	2.46	2.48
Mar.	2.49	2.47	2.49
Apr.	2.50	2.48	2.50
May	2.51	2.49	2.51
June	2.52	2.50	2.52
July	2.53	2.51	2.53
Aug.	2.54	2.52	2.54
Sept.	2.55	2.53	2.55
Oct.	2.56	2.54	2.56
Nov.	2.57	2.55	2.57
Dec.	2.58	2.56	2.58
Jan.	2.59	2.57	2.59
Feb.	2.60	2.58	2.60
Mar.	2.61	2.59	2.61
Apr.	2.62	2.60	2.62
May	2.63	2.61	2.63
June	2.64	2.62	2.64
July	2.65	2.63	2.65
Aug.	2.66	2.64	2.66
Sept.	2.67	2.65	2.67
Oct.	2.68	2.66	2.68
Nov.	2.69	2.67	2.69
Dec.	2.70	2.68	2.70
Jan.	2.71	2.69	2.71
Feb.	2.72	2.70	2.72
Mar.	2.73	2.71	2.73
Apr.	2.74	2.72	2.74
May	2.75	2.73	2.75
June	2.76	2.74	2.76
July	2.77	2.75	2.77
Aug.	2.78	2.76	2.78
Sept.	2.79	2.77	2.79
Oct.	2.80	2.78	2.80
Nov.	2.81	2.79	2.81
Dec.	2.82	2.80	2.82
Jan.	2.83	2.81	2.83
Feb.	2.84	2.82	2.84
Mar.	2.85	2.83	2.85
Apr.	2.86	2.84	2.86
May	2.87	2.85	2.87
June	2.88	2.86	2.88
July	2.89	2.87	2.89
Aug.	2.90	2.88	2.90
Sept.	2.91	2.89	2.91
Oct.	2.92	2.90	2.92
Nov.	2.93	2.91	2.93
Dec.	2.94	2.92	2.94
Jan.	2.95	2.93	2.95
Feb.	2.96	2.94	2.96
Mar.	2.97	2.95	2.97
Apr.	2.98	2.96	2.98
May	2.99	2.97	2.99
June	3.00	2.98	3.00
July	3.01	2.99	3.01
Aug.	3.02	3.00	3.02
Sept.	3.03	3.01	3.03
Oct.	3.04	3.02	3.04
Nov.	3.05	3.03	3.05
Dec.	3.06	3.04	3.06
Jan.	3.07	3.05	3.07
Feb.	3.08	3.06	3.08
Mar.	3.09	3.07	3.09
Apr.	3.10	3.08	3.10
May	3.11	3.09	3.11
June	3.12	3.10	3.12
July	3.13	3.11	3.13
Aug.	3.14	3.12	3.14
Sept.	3.15	3.13	3.15
Oct.	3.16	3.14	3.16
Nov.	3.17	3.15	3.17
Dec.	3.18	3.16	3.18
Jan.	3.19	3.17	3.19
Feb.	3.20	3.18	3.20
Mar.	3.21	3.19	3.21
Apr.	3.22	3.20	3.22
May	3.23	3.21	3.23
June	3.24	3.22	3.24
July	3.25	3.23	3.25
Aug.	3.26	3.24	3.26
Sept.	3.27	3.25	3.27
Oct.	3.28	3.26	3.28
Nov.	3.29	3.27	3.29
Dec.	3.30	3.28	3.30
Jan.	3.31	3.29	3.31
Feb.	3.32	3.30	3.32
Mar.	3.33	3.31	3.33
Apr.	3.34	3.32	3.34
May	3.35	3.33	3.35
June	3.36	3.34	3.36
July	3.37	3.35	3.37
Aug.	3.38	3.36	3.38
Sept.	3.39	3.37	3.39
Oct.	3.40	3.38	3.40
Nov.	3.41	3.39	3.41
Dec.	3.42	3.40	3.42
Jan.	3.43	3.41	3.43
Feb.	3.44	3.42	3.44
Mar.	3.45	3.43	3.45
Apr.	3.46	3.44	3.46
May	3.47	3.45	3.47
June	3.48	3.46	3.48
July	3.49	3.47	3.49
Aug.	3.50	3.48	3.50
Sept.	3.51	3.49	3.51
Oct.	3.52	3.50	3.52
Nov.	3.53	3.51	3.53
Dec.	3.54	3.52	3.54
Jan.	3.55	3.53	3.55
Feb.	3.56	3.54	3.56
Mar.	3.57	3.55	3.57
Apr.	3.58	3.56	3.58
May	3.59	3.57	3.59
June	3.60	3.58	3.60
July	3.61	3.59	3.61
Aug.	3.62	3.60	3.62
Sept.	3.63	3.61	3.63
Oct.	3.64	3.62	3.64
Nov.	3.65	3.63	3.65
Dec.	3.66	3.64	3.66
Jan.	3.67	3.65	3.67
Feb.	3.68	3.66	3.68
Mar.	3.69	3.67	3.69
Apr.	3.70	3.68	3.70
May	3.71	3.69	3.71
June	3.72	3.70	3.72
July	3.73	3.71	3.73
Aug.	3.74	3.72	3.74
Sept.	3.75	3.73	3.75
Oct.	3.76	3.74	3.76
Nov.	3.77	3.75	3.77
Dec.	3.78	3.76	3.78
Jan.	3.79	3.77	3.79
Feb.	3.80	3.78	3.80
Mar.	3.81	3.79	3.81
Apr.	3.82	3.80	3.82
May	3.83	3.81	3.83
June	3.84	3.82	3.84
July	3.85	3.83	3.85
Aug.	3.86	3.84	3.86
Sept.	3.87	3.85	3.87
Oct.	3.88	3.86	3.88
Nov.	3.89	3.87	3.89
Dec.	3.90	3.88	3.90
Jan.	3.91	3.89	3.91
Feb.	3.92	3.90	3.92
Mar.	3.93	3.91	3.93
Apr.	3.94	3.92	3.94
May	3.95	3.93	3.95
June	3.96	3.94	3.96
July	3.97	3.95	3.97
Aug.	3.98	3.96	3.98
Sept.	3.99	3.97	3.99
Oct.	4.00	3.98	4.00
Nov.	4.01	3.99	4.01
Dec.	4.02	4.00	4.02
Jan.	4.03	4.01	4.03
Feb.	4.04	4.02	4.04
Mar.	4.05	4.03	4.05
Apr.	4.06	4.04	4.06
May	4.07	4.05	4.07
June	4.08	4.06	4.08
July	4.09	4.07	4.09
Aug.	4.10	4.08	4.10
Sept.	4.11	4.09	4.11
Oct.	4.12	4.10	4.12
Nov.	4.13	4.11	4.13</

The Day in Finance

By
R. L. BARNUM

New York, August 27.—Marked activity and strength witnessed in the stock market at the opening of this morning. The price movement in General Motors was characteristic. Closing at 124-3/4, it represented a gain of 12-3/4 points from last week's low. General Motors opened at 125-3/4 and advanced in the early trading to 126-3/4 with the tick falling 17 minutes behind trading on the stock exchange floor.

Call money ruled at 7 per cent with banks calling $35,000,000 to noon and the rate then going up to 7-1/2. This caused considerable profit taking. General Motors selling around noon at 123-3/8 with other leading shares following.

Interest in Bulls

It was again made plain today that interest in the stock market is decidedly on the side of advancing prices. As soon as prices began to decline the volume of trading started to fall off with the tickers quickly catching up with transactions on the floor.

When the stock market started to advance in July from the low price

Imports of Gold

There is no doubt that gold imports would cause the bull stock market to increase its pace and thus make it more difficult for the federal reserve to curb excessive stock speculation.

Some very good July statements were reported by railroads serving the wheat states. Atchison, for example, showing gross of $25,267,000 against $21,590,000 a year ago, with net at $1,688,000 against $1,467,000. For the seven months gross of $132,517,000 compared with $113,321,000 for the same period of 1927 and net of $19,400,000 with $25,338,000.

Eastern roads are not showing up as well as those in the west. Baltimore and Ohio for instance reports July gross of only $19,911,000 against $20,251,000 a year ago with net, however, at $4,848,000 against $3,687,000.

For the seven months gross of $131,143,000 compared with $145,717,000 and net of $22,561,000 with $22,242,000.

The foregoing figures show that Baltimore and Ohio is now pinching on maintenance appropriations to make up in net for the shrinkage that has occurred in gross earnings.

Briggs Manufacturing shares had a quiet active day with prices advancing on widespread rumors that Chrysler was after this body manufacturing company. The head of the Chrysler company started after taking over Dodge that he was not after any more properties but Wall Street believed he had changed his mind.

Loft shares were active and strong on what was generally credited as pool operations. It is understood that prominent traders who have been con-

On and after August 27, 1928, it will be responsible for the obligations of Mrs. Mary Lou or Mrs. D. O. HANLEY.

NOTICE
The body of J. B. Lassiter, 48, who died Sunday at a private hospital, was taken to the funeral home of J. B. Lassiter and interment Monday afternoon. The Rev. J. M. Dodd officiating.

JOHN A. WOOTEN.
Funeral services for John A. Wooten, 862 Murphy avenue, who died Saturday afternoon at a private hospital, will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the West End Baptist church. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

WAITMAN EAST.
The body of Waitman East, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. East, of Penney Farms, Fla., who was killed Saturday afternoon when he fell out of a speeding automobile on Stowak street, was sent Sunday morning to Jacksonville for funeral services and interment.

Lodge Notices
The regular communication of East Point chapter, B. A. M., No. 42, will be held this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

GEORGE ROEDER, H. P. F. A. JOHNSON, Sec.
The regular communication of Gate City Lodge No. 2, F. & A. M., will be held this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. The following brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, J. G. BENTON, Sec.

The regular communication of Capital City Lodge No. 412, F. & A. M., will be held this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. The following brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, R. C. WITCHER, W. M. RALPH A. DILL, Sec.

The regular communication of Ogden lodge, No. 625, F. & A. M., will be held in the temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, H. E. JUDGE, Sec.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

NOTICE TO CONSTITUTION SUBSCRIBERS!

Is the daily Constitution delivered to you on or before 6:00 A. M. daily?

Any subscriber in the city of Atlanta and suburbs failing to receive the daily Constitution by 6:00 A. M., or earlier if desired, will confer a special favor by reporting same to The Constitution, City Circulation Department—Phone WALnut 6565.

The delivery of The Daily Constitution is made between 3:00 and 6:00 A. M., and the completion of this delivery by each and every carrier by not later than 6:00 A. M. is demanded by The Constitution.

The Constitution subscribers living in towns outside of Atlanta and which are served by The Atlanta Constitution trucks are also entitled to early morning delivery, and any subscriber failing to receive The Constitution as early as he believes he should have it, arrival of truck considered, should notify The Atlanta Constitution by letter at once.

Many of the towns so served should have a delivery by not later than 6:00 A. M. The towns served by truck service receive the final or the very same edition that is delivered to Atlanta subscribers.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION,
Atlanta, Ga.

COLORADO RAIN TURNS TO SNOW; PEAKS COVERED

Breckenridge, Colo., August 27.—(P)—A light rain in this vicinity turned to snow above timberline and gave the mountains a midwinter appearance today. A foot of snow fell on Mount Evans Saturday night.

Mortuary

MRS. LILA A. THOMAS.
Mrs. Lila A. Thomas died Saturday, at her home in Tullahoma, Tenn. She is survived by her sister, Miss Augusta Curtis; two brothers, the Rev. Lowndes W. Curtis, of Richmond, Va., and John Curtis, of Texas; and two nephews, Edward W. Russell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Ernest Russell, of El Paso, Texas.

J. B. LASSITER.
The body of J. B. Lassiter, 48, who died Sunday at a private hospital, was taken to the funeral home of J. B. Lassiter and interment Monday afternoon. The Rev. J. M. Dodd officiating.

JOHN A. WOOTEN.
Funeral services for John A. Wooten, 862 Murphy avenue, who died Saturday afternoon at a private hospital, will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the West End Baptist church. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

WAITMAN EAST.
The body of Waitman East, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. East, of Penney Farms, Fla., who was killed Saturday afternoon when he fell out of a speeding automobile on Stowak street, was sent Sunday morning to Jacksonville for funeral services and interment.

Lodge Notices
The regular communication of East Point chapter, B. A. M., No. 42, will be held this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

GEORGE ROEDER, H. P. F. A. JOHNSON, Sec.
The regular communication of Gate City Lodge No. 2, F. & A. M., will be held this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. The following brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, J. G. BENTON, Sec.

The regular communication of Capital City Lodge No. 412, F. & A. M., will be held this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, R. C. WITCHER, W. M. RALPH A. DILL, Sec.

The regular communication of Ogden lodge, No. 625, F. & A. M., will be held in the temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, H. E. JUDGE, Sec.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

Uniform Lodge No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular convention on this (Tuesday) evening, August 28, at 8 o'clock in the Greenfield temple, 428 1/2 Marietta street, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock. All qualified brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of the lodge, L. E. F. TERRELL, K. of R. & S. G.

LONG ILLNESS FATAL TO MRS. E. S. AIKEN

Mrs. Eugenia Scott Aiken, 68, widow of Eugene Henry Aiken, died Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Willard C. Patterson, 965 St. Charles avenue, after an extended illness. Mrs. Aiken suffered a cerebral hemorrhage in April, but rallied after several weeks and showed considerable improvement until ten days ago when she suffered a relapse.

Born at Kirtland, Ga., in Chattooga county, near Summerville, December 10, 1860, Mrs. Aiken was the daughter of William Crawford Scott and Anna Hamilton Scott. She was graduated from Rome Female college, a Presbyterian institution that flourished during the seventies and eighties, and was the alma mater of Ellen Axon Wilson, the first Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

Descendant of Byrds.
She was a descendant of the Byrds and Hamiltons of Virginia, and married Eugene Henry Aiken, of Morgan county, near Madison, Ga., December 31, 1884. He died August 14, 1925.

She spent the greater portion of her married life in Morgan county, but moved during the latter years of her husband's life to Oxford, where she lived until his death, since then she has made her home in Atlanta with Mrs. Patterson.

She was reared in the Presbyterian faith, but after her marriage, affiliated with the Methodist church of which her husband was a staunch follower.

Funeral Wednesday.
She was active in the Oxford Women's club and all church civic enterprises.

Mrs. Aiken is survived by five daughters and three sons. The daughters are: Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Elizabeth Baird and Mrs. Tallulah Black, all of Atlanta; Mrs. LeRoy M. Webb, of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. George N. Shaw, of Washington, D. C. The sons are Ernest P. Aiken, of Miami, Fla., and Harold D. Aiken, of the United States marine corps, Parris Island, S. C.

Funeral services will be held at the Oxford Methodist church, Oxford, Ga., at 3 o'clock Wednesday. Interment will follow in the Oxford cemetery.

JEWELRY SALESMAN ROBBED OF $20,000 BY FOUR BANDITS

Dakota City, Neb., August 27.—(P)—Kidnaping Samuel S. Schwartz, jewelry salesman, near North Bend, Neb., four robbers looted his grip of more than $20,000 in diamonds, he said, and escaped after throwing him out in a gully along the Missouri river near here today.

Ed. Bond & Condon Co. Funeral Directors
135 Ivy Street, N. E. Lady Assistant Walnut 1708

AWTRY & LOWNDES FUNERAL DIRECTORS
AMBULANCE SERVICE

Professional Ethics Transformed Into Professional Service
J. AUSTIN DILLON CO. FUNERAL DIRECTORS
502 South Pryor Street Main 4680-4681

4214 Joy's Flowers
4214 Joy's Flowers

PROFESSIONAL GARDENS
Albert Howell, Hugh Howell, Arthur Heyman, Herman Heyman, HOWELL, HEYMAN & BOLDING, Lawyers
806 to 530 Connally Bldg. Atlanta, Ga.

1325-7 Peachtree Street, N. E., Fireproof Apartments
FIVE or six-room apartment in one of the most high-class fireproof apartment buildings in the city. A few features that make this building the best in the city consist of: Refrigerator, all-night elevator service, hardwood floors, large rooms, all outside exposure, steam heat, fireproof garage, excellent service and the best location obtainable. Strict reference required. Call us for appointment.

ADAIR REALTY & LOAN COMPANY
WALnut 0100 REALTORS Healey Building

MORTGAGE LOANS 5 1/2% to 8% on all classes of ATLANTA REAL ESTATE
Inquiries Solicited
WEYMAN & CONNORS (Established in 1890)

58 Marietta St. WALnut 2162

1887 1928
Printers for 41 years in Atlanta
Does this signify anything to you?

loote & davies co.

Store in Haas-Howell Building For Lease
70 North Forsyth Street
Heat and Water Furnished
Haas & Howell — WALnut 3111

MORTGAGE LOANS 5 1/2%—6%—6 1/2%—7%—8%
Straight—Reducible—Monthly—Up to 10 Years—Atlanta and Suburbs
DUNLAP AND COMPANY
204 Candler Bldg. WALnut 3480-61-62

PURCHASE MONEY NOTES BOUGHT
SECOND MORTGAGE LOANS MADE PROMPT SERVICE
WOOLFORD REALTY CO.
306 McGLAWN-BOWEN BLDG. WALNUT 5457

W. B. Smith, Inc.—Mortgage Loans
Business and Residence Loans, 5 1/2 to 6%—Second and Monthly Loans
55 Walton Street—Ground Floor Healey Bldg.—WALnut 5381

Money to Loan at 5 1/2% to 6%
On Dwellings, Apartments and Business Property
PROMPT CLOSING
T. B. GAY COMPANY
1012 Grant Bldg. WAL 5678

APARTMENT HOUSE LOANS
Insurance REASONABLE INTEREST RATES
Mortgage Loans Surety Bonds
Spratlin, Harrington & Thomas
72 MARIETTA ST.
WALKER WHITE, Manager Loan Department.

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS 5 1/2% AND 6%
We Also Make Second Mortgage Loans and Buy Mortgage Money Notes
MERCHANTS & MECHANICS BANKING & LOAN CO.
Great Bldg. Forsyth St. WALnut 2945

FINANCE NOW
While money is cheap.
Our Appraisal is without cost to you.
First Mortgage Loans.
ADAMS-CATES CO.
208-11 Grant Bldg. WALnut 5477

Edw. Richardson, C. P. A. W. G. Jackson, C. P. A. L. E. Davis, C. P. A.
RICHARDSON, JACKSON & DAVIS
Certified Public Accountants
MEMBERS AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ACCOUNTANTS
1421-1425 Atlanta Trust Co. Bldg. Atlanta, Ga.

COFFIELD—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coffield of Riverdale, Ga., and Mrs. S. C. Coffield, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Coffield, both of College Park, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Coffield, of Riverdale, Ga., and Mrs. J. W. Coffield, of Riverdale, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. J. W. Coffield, who died at his residence at 2:30 o'clock, from Pleasant Grove Methodist church, Rev. Charles E. Hitt officiating. Interment in the cemetery.

COFFIELD—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coffield of Riverdale, Ga., and Mrs. S. C. Coffield, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Coffield, both of College Park, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Coffield, of Riverdale, Ga., and Mrs. J. W. Coffield, of Riverdale, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. J. W. Coffield, who died at his residence at 2:30 o'clock, from Pleasant Grove Methodist church, Rev. Charles E. Hitt officiating. Interment in the cemetery.

COFFIELD—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coffield of Riverdale, Ga., and Mrs. S. C. Coffield, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Coffield, both of College Park, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Coffield, of Riverdale, Ga., and Mrs. J. W. Coffield, of Riverdale, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. J. W. Coffield, who died at his residence at 2:30 o'clock, from Pleasant Grove Methodist church, Rev. Charles E. Hitt officiating. Interment in the cemetery.

COFFIELD—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coffield of Riverdale, Ga., and Mrs. S. C. Coffield, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Coffield, both of College Park, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Coffield, of Riverdale, Ga., and Mrs. J. W. Coffield, of Riverdale, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. J. W. Coffield, who died at his residence at 2:30 o'clock, from Pleasant Grove Methodist church, Rev. Charles E. Hitt officiating. Interment in the cemetery.

COFFIELD—The friends of Mr